

AP 4500 Student News Media

Reference:

Education Code Section 66301

I. Philosophy

- A. College news media are any news/feature publications issued under the name of the college, funded by the District, and produced by students as an integral part of instruction in Media Entertainment Arts (MEA) and the Associated Student Government's (ASG's) The Paw Print. It may include, but is not limited to, student newspaper reporting, broadcast news journalism and internet news journalism. The term "editorial" refers to all content other than advertising.
- B. College news media, as laboratory publications of the MEA curriculum and ASG's The Paw Print, shall provide vehicles to train students for careers in mass communication. College news media shall also serve the entire college community by reporting the news, including college events and activities, providing a forum for comment and criticism, and encouraging free expression as guaranteed in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
- C. College news media are valuable aids in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion. College news media shall exercise editorial freedom in order to maintain their integrity as vehicles for free inquiry and free expression in the college community. At the same time, the editorial freedom of the college news media shall entail corollary responsibilities.
- D. Each college newspaper or other news medium is published as a learning experience, offered under the MEA department and ASG's The Paw Print. The editorial and advertising materials published in each news medium, including any opinions expressed, are the responsibility of the student staff. An editorial board should be formed for the news media involved if the content produced is not part of the curriculum for a specific course. Under appropriate state and federal court decisions, these materials are free from prior restraint by virtue of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. These procedures are adopted so as to encourage a responsible exercise of such freedom.

II. Journalism Grievance Procedures

- A. Definition of a Grievance – A grievance is a complaint that alleges facts which, if true, would demonstrate a violation of the grievant's right to free inquiry, free speech, or fair treatment; contains allegations that appear to be substantially credible; and is not frivolous.
- B. Informal Grievance Proceedings – Informal Grievance Proceedings for student journalism follow the Board Policy for Student Grievances.
- C. Formal Grievance Proceedings – Formal Grievance Proceedings for student journalism follow the Board Policy for Student Grievances.

Reviewed by CPC: 11/28/23

Next review date: Fall 2029