For this meeting, we ask that all committee members visit the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence website to have all the information needed to come to the meeting feeling prepared. If you are new to the committee, the website will provide an overview of Canyons Completes and the work that has taken place. For additional information, please reach out to Daylene Meuschke, Jasmine Ruys or Paul Wickline for one-on-one updates.

Agenda:

Meeting Theme: Year Wrap Up, Preparation for 2023/24 Forward Progress and Celebration

The overarching goal for this meeting is to celebrate the committee's efforts to improve the student experience.

1. Welcome (Daylene Meuschke-3 minutes)
2. Year in Review and Recognition of Canyons Completes Champions– Daylene Meuschke (20 minutes)

The purpose of this item is to provide a brief recap of our committee's journey this year to improve the student experience, including contributions to major planning, including the Student Equity & Achievement and Strategic Plans. We also want to recognize individuals and leads who have helped advance the committee's effort to improve the student experience.

The mission of the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence Steering Committee is to develop and articulate the institutional approach to fostering an equity-minded, learning-centered and inclusive community for all students, faculty and staff. To fulfill its mission the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence Steering Committee will facilitate streamlined processes, improve communication and improve collaboration through its regular, coordination of meetings between student government, academic senate, student equity and achievement,-basic skills, noncredit, Strong Workforce, and other groups as applicable (e.g., grant funded projects).

3. What's your why and What Additional Supports are Needed? (Breakout Rooms - 20 minutes and Large Group report out – 10 minutes)

The purpose of this item is to provide an opportunity for committee members to share what participation in (IE)<sup>2</sup> has meant to them or how participation in the committee has impacted their experience at CoC and to discuss what more the committee can do to support its members and students.

4. Looking forward to 2023/24: Ideas on how to structure the committee meetings to achieve established goals in the Student Equity and Guided Pathways plans (30 minutes)

The purpose of this item is to discuss how we want to structure the committee meetings in 2023/24 to not only continue forward progress with existing Canyons Completes projects but to also identify the existing, but not yet implemented, topics we want to pursue next year. We want to recognize the changes that are upon CCCs and develop a plan for further engagement of our committee members as we do our work. This includes, but is not limited to, continuing our discussions about:

- a. Reviewing SEA Plan prioritization and next steps,
  - b. Centering student needs,
  - c. Operationalizing what a “Right to Succeed” mindset looks like at CoC,
  - d. Ensuring all entering students are aware/experience services designed to support emotional and financial needs and
  - e. Recalibrating/re-centering our Canyons Completes work alongside examining the intersection of equity and anti-racism
5. Summer Reading Opportunity – *From Equity Talk to Equity Walk: Expanding Practitioner Knowledge for Racial Justice in Higher Education (Jasmine Ruys – 10 minutes)

Are you interested in taking the Student Equity & Achievement \(SEA\) Plan and equity work to the next level? We are looking for committee members who are interested in participating in a book club reading From Equity Talk to Equity Walk: Expanding Practitioner Knowledge for Racial Justice in Higher Education where we will discuss ideas and implications to help us achieve the goals identified in the 2022-25 SEA Plan.

Next Meeting: September 12, 2023 (3-5pm)

Canyons Completes (COC's Guided Pathways) is designed to facilitate positive movement towards completion of degrees, certificates, and skills building courses for students through improved programs, processes and services.

The mission of the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence Steering Committee is to develop and articulate the institutional approach to fostering an equity-minded, learning-centered and inclusive community for all students, faculty and staff.
