524. MATRICULATION – ORIENTATION

POLICY:

524.1 Orientation is a process which acquaints students with college programs, services, facilities and grounds, academic expectations, and institutional procedures.

524.2 All new students entering College of the Canyons will be required to participate in the Orientation component of the Matriculation Program unless exempted from this requirement according to the criteria listed below.

524.3 Exemptions from Orientation

A. Students who have completed an associate degree or higher at an accredited institution.

B. Students taking only courses not dependent on academic skill requisites such as some fine or performing arts or physical education.

C. Students taking only courses to upgrade occupational skills or as continuing education for employment.

524.4 The College will make reasonable efforts to ensure that all exempt students are provided the opportunity to participate in orientation.
