

BP 532 Student Grievances

Introduction:

The purpose of this policy is to provide a prompt and equitable means for resolving student(s) grievances. In the pursuit of academic goals, the student should be free of unfair or improper action by any member of the academic community. The grievance procedure may be initiated by one or more students who reasonably believe he/she/they have been subject to unjust action or denied rights involving their status or privileges as students. It is the responsibility of the student(s) to submit proof of alleged unfair or improper action.

I. Definitions:

1. Grievant – (A) an individual who is enrolled in or registered with an academic program of the College; and/or has completed the immediately preceding term and is eligible for re-enrollment, including the recess periods between academic terms; (B) a person no longer enrolled at the college where there is a grievable issue; (C) an individual who has submitted an application, however is not enrolled or registered with an academic program. Grievances by applicants shall be limited to a complaint regarding denial of admission.
2. Days - shall mean days when the college is in session, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, spring break, winter break, and summer and winter session days.
3. Respondent – Any person claimed by a grievant to be responsible for the alleged grievance.
4. Grievance Officer – For the purposes of this policy the Dean of Students, or the CSSO shall serve as Grievance Officers.
5. Standard of Evidence - Should a grievance involve a formal hearing the standard of proof in effect will be that of a “preponderance of evidence.” Evidence may be received of the sort upon which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs, and is not restricted to evidence admissible under the strict rules of evidence of a court of law.
6. Burden of Proof - It is the responsibility of the grievant(s) to submit proof of alleged unfair or improper action.

This Policy Does Not Apply to the Following:

1. Challenge process for prerequisites, co-requisites, advisories and limitations on enrollment.
2. Grievances pertaining to grades.

4. An appeal for residency determination.
5. Eligibility, disqualification or reinstatement of financial aid.

10. Challenges of established District policies, e.g. Board Rules and Administrative Regulations.
11. Financial claims against the District.

II. Time Limits:

1. The statute of limitations period for requesting a grievance hearing under this policy is one hundred twenty (120) calendar days after the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the grievance; or one hundred twenty (120) calendar days after the student learns, or should have learned, that the student has a basis for filing a grievance.
2. Pursuing an informal remedy for a grievance does not relieve the grievant of the responsibility of requesting a grievance hearing within one hundred twenty (120) calendar days of the incident giving rise to the grievance.
3. Appeal of the time limits, based upon documented extenuating circumstances, as defined in Board Policy, must be made to the Grievance Officer.

III. Informal Resolution

Each grievant shall make a reasonable effort to resolve the matter on an informal basis prior to requesting a grievance hearing, and shall attempt to solve the problem with the person(s) with whom the grievant has the grievance, or that person's immediate supervisor if there is no reasonable opportunity to solve the problem with the individual(s) directly involved.

1. Specifically, the grievant(s) ~~may~~ should, if appropriate, schedule a meeting about the issue(s) with the person with whom the grievant(s) has the grievance, and if necessary, schedule a meeting with the person's immediate supervisor and/or schedule a meeting with the appropriate college administrator. An "informal" discussion after class, or a chance meeting regarding the issue, does not constitute completion of step 1 of the informal process.
2. If the matter is not resolved at step "1" above, the grievant will contact the College grievance officer for assistance. The grievant shall provide the grievance officer with a written statement of grievance and may provide any other information and documentation in support of the grievance. The statement of grievance shall specify the time, place, nature of the complaint, and the remedy or corrective action requested. If a grievant believes that a specific District policy has been violated, the grievant should specify the policy or policies alleged to have been violated. The grievance officer shall inform the grievant of their rights and responsibilities under this policy.

3. The grievance officer will provide a copy of the statement of grievance to the respondent within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, or as soon thereafter as practicable.
4. The grievance officer shall gather, copy and review pertinent information, records and documentation and communicate with all parties, and attempt to mediate an informal resolution.

IV. Formal Resolution

If there is no informal resolution of the grievance, the grievant has a right to request a grievance hearing. This request must occur no later than one-hundred twenty (120) calendar days after the alleged incident.

A. Meeting of the Grievance Hearing Committee

1. Within fifteen (15) days following receipt of the request for a grievance hearing, or as soon thereafter as practicable, a Grievance Hearing Committee shall meet and decide if a grievance hearing will be held. The committee shall consider whether the grievant has met the following requirements:

 - b. The grievant is a student, applicant or former student as defined by this policy.
 - c. The grievant has met the requirements of the grievance policy with respect to timeliness
 - d. The grievant has attempted to solve the matter informally;
 - e. The grievant (s) is personally and directly affected by the alleged grievance;
 - f. The remedy requested by the grievant is appropriate for the act that is alleged and is not frivolous; clearly without foundation, or clearly filed for the purposes of harassment.
 - g. The grievant has cooperated in the processing of the grievance.
2. If the above conditions are satisfied, the committee chairperson shall notify the grievance officer in writing, within five (5) days, that a grievance hearing will be held.

If the grievance does not meet each of the requirements, the hearing committee chair shall notify the grievant in writing of the rejection of the request for a grievance hearing, together with the specific reasons for the rejection and the procedures for appeal. No person shall serve as a member of the hearing committee if that person has been personally involved in any matter giving rise to the grievance, has made any public statement on the matters at issue, or could otherwise not act in a fair manner. The grievant (s) or respondent(s) may challenge for cause any member of the hearing committee prior to the beginning of the hearing by addressing a challenge, in writing, to the CEO who shall determine whether cause for disqualification has been shown. If the CEO feels that sufficient grounds for removal of a member of the grievance committee has been presented, the CEO shall remove the challenged member or members and ask that the appropriate person name a replacement.

Thereafter, the grievant or grievants shall make the first presentation, followed by the respondent or respondents. The grievant(s) may present rebuttal evidence after the respondent(s)' evidence. The burden shall be on the grievant or grievants to prove by substantial evidence that the facts alleged are true and that a grievance has been established as specified above.

recording, the grievance hearing committee chair shall, at the beginning of the hearing, ask each person present to identify themselves by name, and thereafter shall ask witnesses to identify themselves by name. The tape recording shall remain in the custody of the District, either at the college or the District office, at all times, unless released to a professional transcribing service. Any party may request a copy of the tape recording.

11. When the presentation of evidence is concluded, the hearing committee's deliberations shall be confidential and closed to all parties.
