BP 5909  International Students

References:

Immigration and Nationality Act, No. 82-414

5909.1 The College accepts applications from international students who intend to study in the United States on a temporary basis under the provisions of their visa category as required by Federal Law.

5909.2 The College follows the current administrative procedures for international students’ admission, tuition requirements and their student status sponsorship.

See Administrative Procedures [AP 5909]
Approved 12/7/11