Dr. Van Hook announced that:

- She appreciated Mr. Wilk's letter to the paper about the tuition sensitivity issue. The bill passed in the House, and should move to the Senate with no opposition.
- There is an initiative coming up that addresses clarifying language with school districts being subject to city/county ordinances (SB668). The language is very confusing and she plans to analyze it further. Ms. MacGregor agreed it is confusing.
- The Chamber trip to Washington DC is scheduled for April 14-17. The KHTS trip to Sacramento is May 14 and 15. If anyone is interested, please let us know as they are making hotel arrangements soon.

Update on Legislation (10.3)

Mr. Dermody noted the Academic Senate:

- Has had a discussion as to whether or not spring break should be removed from the calendar, but this not happening.
- Will be making a recommendation for spring 2008 and putting our calendar in line with the Hart District calendar. There was discussion about the Hart District calendar and how we try each year to align with spring break to avoid any conflicts.
- Continues with their review of equivalencies and procedures for prerequisites.
- Recommendations for faculty staffing positions have been forwarded to Dr. Van Hook.
- Is working on the Collegial Celebration for all retirees and those who have completed probationary periods and advanced degrees. It will be held this spring. Retired faculty members will also be invited, and more information will come soon.

Academic Senate Report (11.1)

He added there was a nice article sent out from the Statewide Academic Senate on a well written article from Mr. Dan Walters (The Sacramento Bee) who said a number of important things about community colleges.

Ms. Mayer had nothing to report.

Classified Coordinating Council Report (11.2)
Ms. Fiero announced that:
✓ The 4CSD conference was held last week. Representatives from the National Council for Staff Development and Organizational Development were there, and they asked us to present a session at their annual conference about our program and they are nominating us for an institutional merit award.

Dr. Wilding:
✓ Distributed a handout and highlighted some things that are happening in the Student Services department. In particular, he highlighted the Counselors had their annual joint meeting with the Hart counselors, and the BMW Challenge (Body-Mind-Wellness) that is happening on campus promoting health and wellness.

Dr. Capet announced:
✓ The department chairs had a half day retreat and discussed things they are doing now, their goals for 6 months out and their ideas and hopes for the future.
✓ His Brown Bag lunches have been very interesting and he has been enjoying them.

Ms. Coleal added that:
✓ She stopped in at the Textbook Summit and talked with Dr. Martha Kanter about some ideas they have tried with their faculty to provide complete works of Shakespeare.
✓ Ms. Donna Haywood was selected to attend the Asilomar Leadership Seminar.
✓ SB361 (spending formula regulations) has been extended to August 31 for the group to work out the details. (Dr. Van Hook added this is for money we are two-thirds of the way through the year spending!)

Dr. Van Hook announced:
✓ She sent letters to the Eagle Scout awardees.
✓ The interior design exhibit in the Art Gallery by Design 360 Unlimited is on display through March 31. She complimented Mr. Jesse Munoz on his article in The Signal about the exhibit.
✓ There are many trips with Educational Travel coming up, including a trip to Spain and a summer trip to New England (History/English). Many community people are attending as well.
✓ In cooperation with the LA County Children and Family Services, the Heart Gallery Exhibition will be coming to our Art Gallery on April 17. This is an exhibit of children who are waiting to be adopted. A Reception will be held from 6-8pm on April 17.
✓ We had a nice turn out in the PAC for the Chamber lunch last week.
✓ Ms. Bozman is busy working on the SCV Wine Classic on June 2 in the Cal Arts Gallery.
✓ Ms. Anna Fructose-Sanchez (So Cal Edison) has been appointed as the vice president of the Economic Development committee that functions as a part of the Chamber. She is setting up visits with companies to talk about how the Chamber and the College can better serve them.
✓ She distributed “Talking Points” (The Power of Community Colleges) to the Board which came from a newsletter from the AACC. She briefly highlighted the data in the California system, transfers in the state, transferred prepared student numbers, and noted where some major issues and challenges for the state occur.
✓ She was at the Asilomar Leadership Conference yesterday in Monterey and provided a presentation to the attendees. COC had 7 attendees at the event.
Ms. Jenkins noted that:

- Ms. Suzan Solomon was honored as one of the Women of the Year by the LA County Commission for Women and the LA County Board of Supervisors last week. She and Mrs. MacGregor attended and prepared a commendation for Ms. Solomon from our Board. Ms. Jenkins attended the Newhall School Board meeting last night and presented the commendation to her.

- Mr. Michael Hogan sent her a letter letting the Board of Trustees know that the Measure C Oversight Committee is fully in compliance with the Measure C funding. She distributed copies of Mr. Hogan’s letter to all Board members.

Mr. Pemberton noted that:

- On March 1, ASG election packets for next year became available and three people for President have already applied.
- The ASG gave out grant packets yesterday and they will be awarding money in April.
- Ms. Vogler and he will be attending the National Student Advocacy Conference in Washington DC this weekend.

Mr. Wilk:

- Noted Dr. Van Hook did a wonderful job at the Chamber lunch and added that many people had never been in the PAC.
- Attended another Chamber meeting and many people asked if we were considering building a campus in the northern section of the valley.

Mr. Fortune noted that he:

- Attended the Hart Board meeting last week.
- Attended the Hispanic Business Committee meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, and his wife was the recipient of one of the awards.
- He and Dr. Van Hook have worked with Mr. Mike Bone, Marketing Director of the AT&T Championships. Along with Dr. Wilding’s help, they have acquired staff and student tickets which are available for $5.
- Attended the Economic and Workforce Development conference, which was very interesting. Dr. Dena Maloney, Mr. Pete Bellas, Mr. Paul de la Cerda, Ms. Kristin Houser and Ms. Audrey Green did a great job. He noted he was the only Board member in the audience.
- Attended a wonderful SCV Theatre Project event.
- Went to the Las Vegas Revue by the Canyon Theatre Guild.
- Was at the Chamber Quarterly lunch in the PAC.
- Attended the Circle of Drums fundraiser and noted it was nice to have Mr. Remo Bellis at the event.
- Went to the honor band concert by Hart High School and Placerita Junior High School music programs. Both organizations have been mentioned by the state as being in the Top 5.

Ms. MacGregor noted that:

- The Child Development Center Drum Circle event was great. It is interesting and entertaining and she wishes more people would be involved in it.
- The Chamber lunch and Dr. Van Hook’s presentation was excellent.
- She attended the 5 Browns and attended the meet and greet with the 5 kids.
- She is a mentor this semester, has been having meetings with her mentee and is enjoying the experience.
- The new employee lunch was great and it was nice to learn about new additions.
- The Foundation subcommittee meetings and the Canyon Country Campus meetings are coming up.
- On the radio today, she heard about the senior’s response to the computer class at the ACCESS site, which was standing room only. They are scheduling another class on the main campus site.
- Ms. Solomon has served in the area of education in the valley in many ways and for many years. It’s a tremendous honor, as each supervisor selects one woman from their entire district for this honor and Ms. Solomon has done so much for this area.
Mr. Tichenor announced:
✓ This Friday is the Groundbreaking for the University Center and we are very excited about this new and exciting opportunity. He will be attending, and we are honored to have Congressman McKeon at the event. The College also extends our thanks to Mr. Tom Lee and Mr. Lou Garasi for helping us to raise the funds for this project.

Ms. Jenkins added that:
✓ Remo Drums wants to open a Remo Drum site in our area in the future, similar to what they have in the San Fernando Valley.

None.

Ms. Jenkins noted she was aware that Mr. Schrage is working on an update of the Canyon County Educational Center project.

President Jenkins announced the next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 28, 2007. The meeting is a Business Meeting and will begin at 5:00 pm with Closed Session, Open Session at 6:30 pm in the Staff Dining room.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:55 p.m.
