✓ Thanked the Board for their support, noting it was an extreme honor and privilege to work in this district, to have hired 92% of the people who work here, and to see people dare to dream and then do it — saying there is nothing that brings her greater joy. She expressed her gratitude to the Board for their support and confidence and for the naming of the University Center — which started as a dream and is now going to happen!

Honoring her by naming the University Center for her is particularly appropriate. The University Center is one of the most innovative ways to attract people. It took courage and tenacity to get it done and it will positively affect generations of residents in our valley. She thanked the Board for bestowing that honor upon Dr. Van Hook and the College.

Dr. Wilding:
✓ Noted that the college’s credo – we say yes before we say no – comes from the leadership at the college and that’s what makes us different. When you go elsewhere to other colleges, it’s not always that way.
