Dr. Gribbons provided a verbal presentation and overview on the Accountability Reporting for the Community Colleges (ARCC/AB1417) Report. He distributed the College’s Self Assessment to the Board. There was a brief question and answer period. His report is hereby made a part of these minutes as if fully set forth herein.

Dr. Wilding:
✓ Noted that Dr. Van Hook had sent a letter to Senator Jack Scott regarding SB283 – Student Senate for California Community Colleges, encouraging support to this bill. (Her letter was distributed to the Board members.)
✓ Distributed the CCLC’s League Alert which highlighted a new bill, AB 1305 (Mandatory 75/25 Full-Time Faculty).
✓ Noted he received a 24-page document from the California Community Colleges Statewide Legislative update, and offered to send it to the Board members if they don’t already receive it.

The Board requested a summary of key issues regarding relevant/important bills to community colleges prior to their trip to Sacramento in May.

Mr. Dermody was not present. Ms. Ana Palmer (Math Department Chair), who was in the audience, noted the Academic Senate has several committees working to review procedures and processes, including the curriculum committee and the Department Chair Evaluation committees.

Ms. Mayer had nothing to report.

Ms. Fiero announced that:
✓ She attended the Betty Ferguson Foundation’s Vine 2 Wine event, and Human Resources is hiring many new faculty members, getting 6 faculty positions launched/advertised just last week.

Dr. Gribbons:
✓ Had a visit with Mr. Mike Murphy (City of Santa Clarita) and Senator Feinstein’s District director today, and we asked for their support to our medical laboratory technician program and the University Center program.

Dr. Capet noted:
✓ He is excited about all the new hiring we are doing, and is offering assistance in creating the flyers for advertising for the faculty positions that are opening.

Dr. Wilding announced that:
✓ Ms. Ann Lowe, Nursing faculty, was featured in an article (in The Columbian, Washington State) highlighting a teaching workshop for 34 college nursing instructors at Clark College. He distributed copies of the article to the Board.
Ms. Tammy Castor and Mr. Herb Williams (Security Department) are attending a conference on the topic of Emergency Preparedness.

This Saturday is the Wish Granted delivery of gifts to children with cancer, which was put together from campus staff donations. He will be assisting Ms. Allison Devlin with the deliveries to the children.

Mr. Fortune noted that he:

- Attended the Zonta Status of Women luncheon.
- Attended the Betty Ferguson Foundation’s Vine 2 Wine annual event.
- Participated in the Classified Development Day “Q&A with the Board”, as well as the luncheon and he enjoyed the guest speaker.
- Attended the Business Stars dinner, hosted by the students from the Hart District to honor their business partners.
- Has met with several groups of individuals recently, including Dr. Capet and Dr. Floyd Moos to discuss the Performing Arts Center, Ms. Bozman and Mr. John McElwain to discuss media, public information, and ways we communicate with the community and how to stay current with this challenge. He also spent some time with Ms. Coleal to talk about budgeting issues.

Ms. MacGregor noted that:

- She participated in the Classified Development Day and the Board’s Q&A workshop that was held during that day.
- She attended a mentor/mentee meeting this morning, and enjoyed hearing of other participants’ experiences. She noted that all levels of staff are involved in this worthwhile program.
- If any of her fellow Board members are available to participate in the next scheduled office hour with the Board, please let her know.
- She is participating in the Canyon Country Campus subcommittee meetings, and there is a lot going on in many areas.
- The Collegial Celebration is currently scheduled for May 24 in the PAC to honor the faculty retirees, past retirees, those receiving tenure and any new degrees received by faculty.

Mr. Tichenor announced that:

- He attended the Q&A with the Board at the Classified Development Day. He noted it was great that all 5 Board members were present.
- His 17 year old son, Charlie, recently entered a guitar contest, and won the first round, so he will continue to the next round scheduled in Pasadena on April 18. For this reason, he will not be attending the April 18 University Center reception or Special Board meeting at Robinson Ranch.

Ms. Jenkins added that:

- She also participated in and enjoyed the Classified Development Day, noting it was interesting to hear the staff members’ comments, and how much they enjoy working at College of the Canyons.

None.

The Board requested to receive:

- A summary of key issues regarding relevant/important bills to community colleges prior to their trip to Sacramento in May.
President Jenkins announced the next meeting will be a Special Board meeting on Wednesday, April 18, 2007 at Robinson Ranch Clubhouse at 5:30pm. On May 2, we will have a Joint meeting with the COC Foundation Board of Directors, 6:00pm, Performing Arts Center Lobby, College of the Canyons.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Mrs. Joan W. MacGregor, Clerk
Board of Trustees
Santa Clarita Community College District
