Dr. Van Hook:
✓ Distributed a copy of "What They’re Saying..." prepared by Mr. Harnish which showed the notable changes between the Governor’s, the Assembly and the Senate’s proposal for the state budget. She briefly highlighted key issues.
✓ Noted our spring FTES was up 13% over last spring, and summer classes are 17% higher than last summer.
✓ Announced she will not attend next week’s 4th Lobby Day in Sacramento, as we have attended many other sessions already this year. She called Senator Jack Scott and informed him of our plans to return at a future date for more advocacy efforts, when the need is even greater.

Mr. Dermody had nothing to report.

Ms. Cynthia Madia, a representative on the Classified Senate was present. She noted: they will have a “Mix and Mingle” this week, and welcomed everyone to attend. They will vote on the new executive board soon and are planning fundraisers and a summer picnic.

Dr. Van Hook thanked Ms. Madia for her involvement and support from the CSEA in helping to move the Classified Senate forward.

Ms. Jenkins reported that:
✓ She participated in the Foundation Executive Committee meeting (via teleconference) where the key topic was the Coffee Kiosk. She discussed some of the concerns facing the College.

Ms. Fiero noted:
✓ This Friday is the final day of the LEAP program. Final group presentations will be given, followed by a lunch with certificates presented. Everyone has worked very hard on the presentations.

Dr. Wilding had nothing to report.

Dr. Gribbons added that:
✓ On October 1st (about 1:00pm), he and his wife will be having a son.
Dr. Capet noted that:
✓ We have another grant that came through in James Glapa-Grossklag’s area (Distance Learning). All closed captioning for community colleges throughout California will be monitored through COC. We will receive $780k a year for 5 years to organize this effort, and are allowed to retain 4% of the money.
✓ He had his first meeting with the advisory commission for the Child and Family Development Center, and he looks forward to strengthening ties between the two entities.

Ms. Coleal noted that:
✓ She is working with the bookstore to put together a strategic plan for textbook costs and ways to reduce rising costs. They hope to have an implementation plan ready to roll this out soon.

Ms. Bozman added that:
✓ The SCV Wine Classic was a well-supported and great event. They even ran out of glasses!
✓ Mr. Nick Pavik and his wife Lisa had their first child, Maya, earlier this week.

Dr. Maloney noted that:
✓ The first summer session is going well at the Canyon Country Campus.
✓ They plan to expand their TLC to accommodate more students.

Dr. Van Hook added that:
✓ Tomorrow night is our media night in the PAC to announce the new season.
✓ On June 24th, the men’s/women’s golf team, along with Coach Peterson and herself, will be going to the Board of Supervisors’ meeting for recognition as two state championships teams in the same year.
✓ She met earlier today with Mr. David Menchaca (United Way). He has great ideas about United Way partnering with COC and working together.
✓ She, Dr. Maloney, and Dr. Capet met with Mr. Larry Mankin to talk about his role on the Economic Strategy Panel for the Governor, and some of the things he could focus on to benefit the Santa Clarita Valley. They also discussed the idea of the SCV having our own Workforce Investment Board (WIB). With a joint effort with the Chamber, we could create some pressure to make it happen.
✓ She met with Mr. Jaime Castellanos to talk about topics pertinent to the Hart District.

Mr. Cardenas added that:
✓ There is a conference he is interested in attending, and he will talk further with the Board about this. He will forward the information to Mr. Tichenor and Dr. Van Hook for consideration.

Mr. Wilk added that he:
✓ Felt this year’s SCV Wine Classic was a great event. Again, the COC Culinary Arts program was the best food being offered.
✓ Attended the awards reception for the ESL/Emeritus program and it was a great event. He enjoyed talking to the variety of students that were present.

Ms. MacGregor noted she:
✓ Participated in the Betty Ferguson Foundation’s Advisory committee meeting.

Ms. Jenkins announced she:
✓ Cannot attend the PAC media announcement tomorrow night, due to another obligation.

Mr. Fortine noted he:
✓ Was asked to be co-chair (along with his wife) of the leukemia/lymphoma society.
✓ Went to the Hart High School Spring concert.
✓ Participated in the VIP night at Magic Mountain.
✓ Attended the Nurses pinning ceremony.
Attended the COC BBQ for our three retirees.

Was very pleased with the success of the new company used for parking during all the high school graduations in our stadium. They did an outstanding job.

Attended the SCV Wine Classic, which was again an outstanding event.

Was in attendance at the ESL/Emertius college awards.

Was on stage at the Academy of the Canyons graduation. They did everything very quickly and thoroughly, and it was well done.

Attended a retirement party for Liz Stiple from the Child and Family Center who is retiring.

Was invited to do a television show with Mr. John Boston. It will be on in the next week or two, and is about the old American theatre.

Mr. Tichenor added that:

✓ Each trustee has a glass filled with candy in front of them. These were given to them by Ms. Devlin, and he read and distributed a thank you note from her about our recent very successful commencement held at COC.
✓ He attended the Graduates’ breakfast, the Nurses Pinning ceremony, and Commencement, along with other events. He felt one of the main highlights of serving as the Board president is to hand our graduates their diplomas.

There were none.

There were none.

President Tichenor announced the next meeting will be a Business Meeting/Budget Workshop on Wednesday, June 25, 2008. He noted he is teaching Monday through Thursdays, and asked if the Board members would be willing to adjust the time of the June 25 meeting earlier in the day. The Board agreed to start this meeting at 12:00 pm (noon).

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:38 p.m.

Mr. Scott Thomas Wilk, Clerk
