Dr. Wilding noted there was a CCLC alert on Runner’s Bill, asking for our support.

Dr. Van Hook noted:
✓ AB 519 affects concurrent enrollment of high school students during the summer:
   This Bill is important to COC because the programs affected by the Bill are available through COC to our high school students.
✓ COC has written letters of support to the Assembly and the Senate Subcommittee members.
✓ Per email today, the State budget may be getting closer to reality.
Board of Trustees Minutes – Business Meeting
August 13, 2008

There was no one from Academic Senate present to report. However, Dr. Van Hook noted that she has received email from Mr. Dermody who is dealing with bears, coyotes, fires, electrical outages, and plumbing problems while at Camp Tahquitz.

There was no one from Classified Senate present to report.

Ms. Jenkins noted that:
✓ The Foundation Board Executive Committee has selected two vendor contractors.
✓ They are reviewing the Coffee Kiosk contract.
✓ She is impressed with the people serving on the Foundation Board.

Ms. Fiero noted that.
✓ Enrollment is very active, and waitlists are being monitored.
✓ Flex week is the week of August 18th.

Dr. Gribbons noted that:
✓ Three hundred and two prospective students attended Monday’s (August 12th) University Center Open House with several other family members and friends. The next Open House will be scheduled in January

Dr. Capet Noted that:
✓ Plans are well underway for the faculty activities on Opening Day. They will begin the morning in Hasley Hall (ground floor) where six computer labs will be set up to walk faculty through the student assessment tests. They will then move to the PAC where there will be a general introduction of new faculty.
✓ He thanked the Board of Trustees for approving attendance at the Tillery Institute in Berkeley for Audrey Green, Diane Fiero, and himself.

Dr. Wilding noted that:
✓ The first-ever Parent Orientation will be held tomorrow (August 14th).

Ms. Coleal noted that:
✓ Her staff members are very busy closing the books for 2007-08.
✓ The Foundation and GO Bond audits are being held.
✓ LEAP project results were excellent, and she is taking them to the Enrollment Management Committee to review the plan.
✓ The numbers look good for the upcoming PAC season.

Dr. Van Hook noted that:
✓ COC received a $50,000 check from the PGA for our participation in the AT&T Classic.
✓ The California Student Aid Commission report indicated COC’s Financial Aid Program is in compliance. There were no findings.
✓ The amended application to the American Bar Association for COC’s Paralegal Program is ready for submission. It looks like we will receive the approval for our program this fall. Nicole Lucy, Paralegal Department, did an amazing job preparing the two-inch thick report and supporting documentation.
✓ The Zone program for student athletes is up and running.
✓ The PE Building & Tennis Courts are ready.
✓ The Student Ambassador Program will kick off next week. A Meet ‘n Greet Luncheon is scheduled August 20th.
✓ The Alumni BBQ is scheduled September 20th.
Dena Maloney noted that:
✓ Sal Frias, Golden Valley High School visited the Canyon Country Campus and expressed interest in our new vocational programs that are in development.
✓ The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) now provides services at the Canyon Country Campus for a half day every Tuesday and they are booked.
✓ The Canyon Country Campus publication, “First Year in Review” is in Sue’s Bozman’s Department for finalizing.

Jim Schrage noted that:
✓ The Facilities Department is busy preparing for the first day of fall classes (August 25th).
  • Dirt paths are being covered with concrete on the Valencia campus.
  • The Canyon Country Campus access street improvements are done.
  • 600+ spaced have added to the Canyon Country Campus Parking lots.
✓ A tour of the University Center was provided to the Foundation Staff. Anyone who is interested in a tour should contact Jim. Tours must be after 3:00 p.m. so as not to interfere with the construction.
✓ Plans for the Bonelli Remodel and the Library Expansion projects are in DSA.

Sue Bozman noted that:
✓ The Career Classes Brochures going on press.
✓ The Economic Impact Report is being finalized.
✓ She attended the Santa Cruz retreat (funded by Hewlett Foundation) and joined other PIOs and CEOs from around the state noting it was some of the best training she has ever had.

Mr. Cardenas noted that:
✓ Last weekend, he attended the SF Student Trustee workshop in San Francisco training. It provided him with a more complete understanding of his role as a student trustee. After interacting with his peers, he is impressed by this Board.

Mr. Wilk noted that:
✓ He attended Open House for University Center.

Ms. Jenkins:
✓ Thanked Jim Schrage for getting the Board Room remodel finished.

Mr. Fortune noted that:
✓ He is involved in PGA tournament with AT&T. The event has been scaled down, and Santa Clarita will have it for one more year only. The City of Santa Clarita is being asked to step in to keep it going.
✓ He attended Canyon Theater Guild’s “First Nighter” event.
✓ He attended the Sheriff’s Department’s national night out.
✓ He attended the Hyatt Hotel’s 10-year anniversary reception.
✓ He attended the “Team Evan” bowl-a-thon.

Ms. MacGregor:
✓ Thanked Jim Schrage for getting Boardroom remodel finished.
✓ Reminded Board members that the Board’s Flex Workshop session is Thursday, August 21st and the Board members are providing dessert.
✓ The SCV Trustees next planning meeting (with trustees and superintendents from other districts) will be in the Board Room at 6:30p.m. on September 15th. The topic is Emergency Preparedness.
✓ She has enjoyed listening to staff discussions/presentations broadcast on KHTS.

Mr. Tichenor noted that:
✓ He is looking forward to Opening Day.
Mr. Duke noted that:
✓ He likes the new Board room.
✓ The cost of students attending to private universities is now in excess of $50,000 per year. Because of that fact alone, he advised the Board to be prepared for a large increase in the students attending COC.

Comments by the Audience for Items Not on the Agenda (11.6)

Hart District Partnerships:

Requests/Recap of Requests Made During the Meeting By Board Members to Have an Item on a Future Agenda (11.7)

Hart District Bond:
✓ Mr. Fortine announced that the William S. Hart Union High School District is planning to place a bond on the ballot and will be asking COC for an endorsement soon.

District Auditors:
✓ Ms. Jenkins asked if Board members could meet with auditors (probably prior to a Board meeting) early in the audit process to identify areas to be covered in the next audit.

COC Foundation Liaison:
✓ Mr. Tichenor questioned whether a procedure with regard to the term (when, how long) of the Board Liaison to the COC Foundation has been written.
✓ Dr. Van Hook invited the Board members to present their thoughts or areas (when appointments are considered, the length of term based on what role this position plays) so an item can be prepared to place on an upcoming agenda. Ms. MacGregor requested that after this is clarified if the liaison position could be added to the Organizational Chart where the Foundation is represented and the information brought to the Board at the September 10th meeting.

Reserved Parking:
✓ Ms. Jenkins requested parking spaces be reserved for the Board members for the August 27th meeting as students will be back on campus and parking will be a challenge for their arrival for a 5pm Board meeting.

President Tichenor announced the next meeting will be a Business Meeting on Wednesday, August 27, 2008. Closed Session is scheduled for 5:00 pm, with Open Session at 6:30 pm in HSLH 137.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:59 p.m.
