Dr. Van Hook noted that:
✓ She had a new “What They’re Saying…” (written by Mr. Eric Harnish), which she distributed and briefly highlighted the key issues included therein, including the Governor’s special session and our visit yesterday with Senator Runner.
✓ She distributed new Talking Points on California’s Budget Deficit and its impact on COC. We look forward to seeing what the Legislative Analyst's Office (LAO) will accomplish during their special session over the next 19 days.

Mr. Cardenas added that the ASG officers have just received the information from the LAO and will be talking more about it at their next meeting.

Mr. Dermody noted that:
✓ The Academic Senate and campus is excited that the Accreditation process has been completed.
✓ They are now cleaning up the curriculum development process, credit/non-credit, internal transfer process and they will receive a presentation from Ms. Fiero on Schedule 25 software for class/room assignments.

Mr. John Makevich from the Classified Senate announced:
✓ He and their officers thanked Dr. Van Hook for recently making time to talk about new ideas for the Classified Senate.
✓ He appreciates Dr. Van Hook’s and the Board members’ support for him and Dennis Lettau to attend the CCLC Conference and a Senate workshop being held in Anaheim.
✓ The craft fair will be held November 22 and 23. They have approximately 30 vendors planning to attend.

Ms. Jenkins noted she was not able to attend the executive committee liaison meeting last week.

Ms. Fiero noted that:
✓ The Instruction Office has been very busy. They are currently doing special population registration.
✓ The Schedule 25 software is scheduling software that takes into account special preferences and requirements for rooms for each class to be held.

Dr. Wilding announced that:
✓ Tomorrow is the “Great Southern California Shakeout” and we have many people who have worked hard to make our mock earthquake and evacuation a success. We will test our emergency notification system at this time, and are encouraging everyone to look around their areas to ascertain what problems they might encounter in a real earthquake in order to help us be prepared. Dr. Van Hook thanked Dr. Wilding for coordinating this effort.

Dr. Gribbons noted that:
✓ Senator Feinstein’s field representative will be visiting the College on Friday.
✓ He will be hosting an online demonstration of the Academic Program Review tomorrow for Long Beach City College.
✓ We are conducting focus groups to determine industry needs and tomorrow. The first one will be on the construction trades.

Ms. Coleal noted that:
✓ Donna Haywood has been working with Computer Support Services to integrate an online budget development process with the new online program review process.
✓ There are 60 grants currently being worked on in Fiscal Services.
She thanked Mr. Dermody for his help in working with the faculty to send out a survey to the Academic Senate to develop ideas for textbook affordability.

Mr. Schrage announced he:
✓ Traveled to the CCFC conference last week. The community college system passed $5.8 billion dollars in bonds. Not one community college bond failed!

Dr. Maloney announced that:
✓ As a result of activities on campus, they have two representatives from CCC on ASG and plan to get more student activities going.
✓ She met with the Deans of Off Campus Centers at the Vallejo Center (Solano Community College District). It was a great meeting, and they discussed the idea of starting a group at the CCLC conference for Southern California Deans who will meet and become a part of the larger statewide group from Northern California.

Ms Bozman added that:
✓ We had a very successful drive-thru flu clinic last week and got a lot of great press as well.

Dr. Van Hook:
✓ Noted that the Radio Television Video & Film department (RTVF) provided her with a short compilation of Election Night video coverage they did for Cougar News (Channel 20). This video was shown at the meeting.
✓ Presented a picture show, which highlighted the following:
  ▪ LEAP – follow-up session – October 17th
  ▪ President’s Circle Dinner – October 18th
  ▪ Major Quest – October 21st
  ▪ University Center Donor Open House – October 22nd
  ▪ NCSPOD Conference in Reno, NV – October 24th
  ▪ Library Associates “In Good Taste” event – October 25th
  ▪ Cougar Café is up and running with lots of students
  ▪ Halloween parties for COC staff and kids under 5 years old
  ▪ Diavolo performance in the PAC, including a show for junior high students and the opportunity for them to work with our Master Dance Classes at COC.
  ▪ Drive-thru Flu Shot clinic – November 7th
  ▪ Canyon Country Campus Monument Signs and the plans for the future site of the Applied Technology Education Center
  ▪ Athletic Update on our Cougar sports teams
  ▪ Classroom Visits for fall 2008
  ▪ A visit from Mr. Dale Smith, retired faculty member
  ▪ Senator Runner’s visit to the Canyon Country Campus on November 11th
  ▪ A recognition to our grounds staff, who keep our campus so beautiful!

Mr. Cardenas noted that:
✓ ASG will host the CCC fall festival tomorrow from 11-12:30pm.
✓ The Toys for Tots drive will start tomorrow and run through December 4th. They will collect toys in the student center and around the community.
✓ This year’s All American Smoke Out is November 20th from 10-1pm on campus to raise awareness of the impact smoking has on one’s health.

Mr. Wilk added that:
✓ He volunteered time at Chamber Expo and he was working with the computer information technology group. They were very energetic and he enjoyed his time there.
✓ He thanked the Public Information Office for adding the Board to the Press Release distribution list.
Ms. MacGregor:
✓ Offered her thanks from the Board to the entire staff and college for their work on the Accreditation Team Visit. She was thrilled with the report, and enjoyed her participation during the team’s visit to our campus.
✓ Thanked Mr. Schrage and his staff for having the handrails put up in the PAC. She noted they will be a big help for many people, including our volunteers.
✓ Requested information about the requirements we might have for students who come to COC from home schooling. Ms. Bozman noted she would look into it and send the information to the Board.
✓ Toured the Sulphur Springs new District Office, which is 18,000 square feet.
✓ Announced she would be attending the Scholarship presentation meeting.
✓ Complimented Dr. Maloney on the “First Year in Review from CCC” publication.
✓ Noted that the recent CCLC publication has a group photo of the student trustees from their workshop in August, and Mr. Cardenas can be seen front and center.

Ms. Jenkins added that:
✓ Last Friday, she attended the Zonta Roast at the Odyssey Restaurant. She worked with Ms. Mayer and Ms. Kristianne Toledo in Student Development to have a College Ambassador attend this event as well. Mr. Cardenas also attended, and the impact of having students at these events is tremendous.

Mr. Fortine had nothing additional to report.

Mr. Tichenor noted that:
✓ He spent a night in the hospital recently (and he is fine), but he was constantly being helped by nurses who were COC students and/or graduates of our nursing program. They were wonderful and he was very proud of them.

None.

Ms. MacGregor requested:
✓ An information item about the public access TV Station with the City of Santa Clarita and our instructor’s involvement, especially with the turn-over with Time Warner.

President Tichenor announced the next meeting will be our yearly Organizational/Business meeting on Wednesday, December 3, 2008. The meeting will begin at 5:00pm in HSLH 137 with Closed Session, followed by Open Session at 6:30 pm.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9:31 p.m.
