Looking Back

“The Canyon Country Campus Advisory Committee has played an important role in guiding the campus from site selection, to the grand opening in 2007, to the present 5th year anniversary.”
“Establishing that “meeting the needs of the community and students” is a guiding principle for the campus

“Walking distances evaluated for student convenience

“Parking is close to classrooms

“One-way campus vehicle circulation

“All underground infrastructure is in place for permanent buildings

“Size and placement of permanent buildings determined

“Ample open space and green areas.”
“Pioneering and building momentum

“Found space at Applied Tech pad location

“Maximizing eligibility for funding through efficient space utilization

“Exceeding enrollment and service projections

“Bringing the community to campus through events and workshops

“Sharing and promoting campus activities
Committee Highlights

“Campus environment

“High desert landscape
Native and drought-tolerant plantings

“Local history and culture
Campus colors and clever use of topography

“Enhancing the local Sierra Highway corridor
High Desert Landscape
"Since 2007, the Canyon Country Campus has been an important resource to our community—providing quality higher education and enriching the local environment."
Collaboration partnerships important

As the College of the Canyons marks its fifth year of innovation, the faculty, staff, and students have formed strong partnerships with the community.

Students are excited about learning

The College of the Canyons is committed to providing a quality education to its students. The College offers a wide range of courses and programs that cater to the needs of its diverse student body.

Campus offers students more opportunities

The College of the Canyons is constantly expanding its facilities and programs to offer more opportunities for its students. The College is proud of its commitment to providing a high-quality education to its students.

It's been an honor to teach at this campus

The College of the Canyons is a wonderful place to teach and learn. The faculty and staff are dedicated to providing a quality education to its students.

Can't wait to come back in five years

The College of the Canyons is excited about the future. The College is committed to continuing its tradition of providing a high-quality education to its students.

Reflections of the Canyon Country Campus

Celebrating the fifth anniversary of the Canyon Country Campus

The College of the Canyons is proud to celebrate its fifth year of innovation. The College is committed to continuing its tradition of providing a high-quality education to its students.

Proud of contributions to our community

The College of the Canyons is proud of its contributions to the community. The College is committed to continuing its tradition of providing a high-quality education to its students.

Planning for an exciting future

The College of the Canyons is excited about the future. The College is committed to continuing its tradition of providing a high-quality education to its students.

Advocacy Covington Hemphill 307-308

Jenny B. Shaffer

Lisa Behar

Lisa Newton

Marc Yañez

Jenny B. Shaffer

Lisa Behar

Lisa Newton

Marc Yañez

Jenny B. Shaffer

Lisa Behar

Lisa Newton

Marc Yañez

Jenny B. Shaffer

Lisa Behar

Lisa Newton

Marc Yañez

Jenny B. Shaffer

Lisa Behar

Lisa Newton

Marc Yañez
“The campus is bustling!
Growing students enrollment
More COC graduates than ever before
Increasing support services and campus activities
Preparing the Workforce
Largest summer yet planned for 2013 (94 sections)

Largest semester yet planned for Fall 2013 (330)

77% of 2012-13 COC graduates took at least one class at CCC

Approximately 30,000 students have studied at Canyon Country since 2007
Supporting the Community
2012-2018 Educational and Facilities Master Plan

Hundreds of department, program, and division-specific initiatives for the Canyon Country Campus Facilities renderings for seven year construction plan.
"Complete final design and planning for the permanent science lab building"

"Design and planning for permanent classroom and learning resource building, including large lecture space and additional lab space for arts and social sciences"
Initiatives

- ECE degree & K-12 partnerships
- Veterans learning cohort
- (water systems learning tech)
- Distinct academic pathway for transfer learning
- (CPE and CTE students)
- Distinct academic pathway for transfer learning
- Planetary science/planetarium
- Source, focus, and funding
- Design concept, funding, and offerings
- Outreach and in-reach marketing and services
Initiatives

Create comprehensive 5-year plan for campus maintenance, beautification, landscaping, and signage.

Identify economic development services and college community meeting spaces.

Expand hours, facilities, student support of existing large community spaces.

Create large college/community spaces and student support of existing facilities.
Initiatives

“Emergency Preparedness Training

“Incident Command Structure

“Accreditation Compliance

“Systematic Review of Certs/Degrees Offered at CCC
The Canyon Country Campus is building momentum, with growing enrollment and service footprints as well as robust facilities and staffing plans for the future.
"The Canyon Country Campus Advisory Committee plays an important role in advising and promoting campus operations and building community excitement and support for what is to come."
A Bright Future