Are you Ready for Spring Semester?

Campus Information

Whether you are new to CCC, or a returning student, we know you have questions. Check out the FAQ's page on CCC’s website, with questions and answers for students attending classes at CCC.

- Registration isn’t over, there are several Late Start classes still available for registration including Math and English courses. “Late Start” or “Short Term” courses often run 8-14 weeks. For a listing of Late Start classes view the class schedule online; select the Spring 2015 term, for Course Status select “Open classes only” from the drop down menu.

- Semester length parking permits may be purchased through the Student Business Office, in Quad 1, 1-C. Daily permits may be purchased for $300/day from the black vending machines located at the entrance of Lot 2 and in Lot 3, in front of the Quad 1 staircase.

- You can have your Student ID printed in the Admissions office in Quad 1, 1-C.

- If you are having problems accessing your student email account you can contact our help desk at emailsupport@my.canyons.edu.

- Printers are available for student use in the Library (307), TLC (306), Student Study Room (302), ASG Student Lounge (204) and Student Services Computer Lab (Quad 1, 1-B).

Taking an Online or Hybrid Class?

Orientation letters are writing by your instructor and give details about the course, important dates, textbook information etc. To access the orientation letter for you online or hybrid class visit the Distance Learning website.

Can’t see your online or hybrid class in Blackboard?

Blackboard courses are not available to students until sometime on the first day of class. If it’s the afternoon on the first day of your class and your class is still not showing up on your Blackboard account, please contact your instructor.

New Student Advisement Workshop

This is a two hour workshop designed to assist new students with selecting classes in time for registration. By the end of the workshop, students will have:

- Clarified educational goals
- An understanding of how to balance classes and manage their time
- Worked out a primary and alternative semester class schedule
You will walk away with a one-semester student educational plan! You may sign up online, by phone or in person at the Counseling Office. Workshops will take place at the Valencia and Canyon Country Campus. Sign up and reserve your seat at http://www.canyons.edu/Offices/Counseling/Pages/New-Student-Advisement.aspx or call 661-362-3811.

If you have previously attended another college prior to COC, it is best for you to submit your official college transcripts to Admission & Records and schedule a counseling appointment to get your prior college work evaluated.
