Looking for a job? Changing jobs?

The Job Fair is this Wednesday, April 29th, from 10:00am to 1:00pm. Head out to Cougar Way and you’ll see between 30 and 40 employers lined up and ready to meet you. It will be a great opportunity to introduce yourself, make a good impression, and see what types of jobs are out there. You’ll want to dress up and bring copies of your resume. As a bonus, the job fair will include a virtual job fair that will represent companies that could not be in attendance, and will host a couple of workshops on using social media to job search and being proactive to get interviews. So get ready to meet your future employer. For more information visit the Job & Career Center’s Job Fair information site.

What does it mean to be an explorer?

CCC will host its 11th Star Party Friday, May 1st, 7:30pm – 10:00pm. Astronomy Physics Club dominated the Bottle Rocket competition at the Fall party, will they have what it takes to keep their bragging rights? The Spring Star Party will feature a catapult competition with Astronomy Physics Club, MESA-SHPE, Chemistry Club, and Star Party newbies, Math Club and Future Educators Club. But the Star Party isn’t all about projectiles. JPL Deputy Project Manager, Matt Wallace will be on hand to speak about the Mars rover Curiosity, as well as future generations of the rover. Wallace will also be providing demonstrations using one of JPL’s model rovers. The Geography and Geology clubs will be teaming up to teach us about the similarities between Earth and lunar volcanoes. The Astronomy and Physics Club will be explaining the Heuristic Phenomena, also what “heuristic” means. And if all of this sounds a bit too educational for your Friday night remember it’s an evening with a clear view of the night sky, access to telescopes aimed at celestial wonders, free popcorn and cotton candy, and a new way to have a picnic. You might even be able to earn some extra credit!

For those about to rock...

We had so much fun with the Battle of the Bands in 2014 we decided to do it all over again! May 31st will be the 2nd annual Battle of the Bands with the competition kicking off at 12:00pm, 5 bands will be competing for a $500 cash grand prize as well as an assortment of other goodies from sponsors like Yamaha, D’Addario and more.

If you think your band has what it takes, visit the Battle of the Bands site for contest rules and submission instructions at http://www.canyons.edu/Offices/CCC/Pages/Bands.aspx. Submissions close April 30th.
