

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

TO BE COMPLETED BY ALL PARTICIPATING STUDENTS

In order to provide a meaningful experience for all students, we require that all students have self-discipline and follow instructions. Discipline plays an important role in helping adolescents develop socially, emotionally, and physically, and is also vital for student safety. Students are expected to follow the code of conduct at all times.

If behavioral problems persist, parents will be contacted to discuss the situation. If a student's behavior is unsafe or harmful to themselves or others, parents will be notified to pick up their child. Recurrent behavioral problems may result in permanent suspension from the program without a refund.

- Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of good citizenship, honesty, and integrity in their academic work and in their personal conduct.
- Students are expected to show courtesy and respect for their fellow students, for College of the Canyons personnel, and for campus visitors.
- Students are expected to be well-behaved and follow the instructions of the camp counselors, instructional staff, and other campus personnel. Unruly behavior will not be tolerated.
- Students shall uphold high standards of academic integrity through honesty, trust, fairness and responsibility. Students are expected to demonstrate a spirit of cooperation and exploration within the academic guidelines provided by their instructors, and to meet the intellectual challenges of the program through honest effort and hard work.
- Students are expected to show respect for and take reasonable care of campus property, equipment and furnishings.
- Students are expected to respect the belongings of their fellow students. They shall not borrow, use, or disturb items belonging to other students or camp staff without clear prior permission.
- Students shall not take part in or facilitate discrimination of any kind, including, but not limited to, discrimination based on race, color, religion, nationality, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, ethnicity, age, medical condition, mental or physical disability, marital status, or sexual orientation.
- Students shall not use, possess, or distribute alcohol, tobacco, or drugs, with the exception of prescription and over-the-counter medications approved for use by the student's parent or guardian. Participation in an incident involving alcohol, tobacco, or drugs is cause for immediate dismissal, even if the student did not consume or intend to consume these substances.
- Students shall not commit acts of violence on persons or property, nor shall they threaten to commit any act of violence.
- Students shall not engage in any form of harassment or bullying. Harassment consists of conduct of any type (including but not limited to written, verbal, graphic or physical conduct) which has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance or which creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive learning, residential, or working environment.
- Students shall not engage in any form of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment includes sexual conduct, or conduct with sexual overtones, which has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance or which creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive learning, residential, or working environment.
