Subject: ECE
Course Number: 120
Section Number: 10847
Name of Class: Growth and Development
Instructor: Wendy Ruiz
E-mail: wendy.ruiz@canyons.edu
Semester: Summer 2014
Class Starting Date: June 16
Class Ending Date: July 25

Class Description: Covers the process of growth and change of human development spanning conception through late childhood. Current theories and issues related to the field of Early Childhood Education are reviewed extensively. Meets part of the Title XXII core requirements to work in a licensed early childhood program.

Textbook and Access code information, including costs: Children, 12th edition, by Santrock

Other Course Materials Required:

Initial instructions for beginning of class: You will be able to log in starting on June 16th. You are required to log in and complete the introduction by Midnight on the 16th, in order to maintain your spot in the class. Please check your email daily for class updates.

Testing regulations (included proctoring guidelines link):

Course Management System Information:

Student Learning Outcomes: 1. To study and define current developmental theories and their application to the field of Early Childhood Education. 2. To gain a better understanding of the contributions of research to the field of Early Childhood Education. 3. To analyze how contemporary change influences the field of Early Childhood Education. 4. To distinguish the differences between the developmental needs of children at various ages and stages of development. 5. To relate developmental theory to personal life experiences.

Useful Links:

Other:

DSPS Information: