Subject: Music
Course Number: 107
Section Number: 12250
Name of Class: History of Rock and Roll
Instructor: C. Coulter
E-mail: chris.coulter@canyons.edu
Semester: Fall 2014
Class Starting Date: October 20
Class Ending Date: December 13

Class Description: This class will explore the rise of Rock and Roll as a musical genre, as an expression of American culture, and examine its place in modern society.

Textbook and Access code information, including costs: OnMusic Rock, second edition by connect4education $89.95

Other Course Materials Required:

Initial instructions for beginning of class: All students must log on to BLACKBOARD to begin work on this course.

Testing regulations (included proctoring guidelines link): All exams and tests will be conducted online through BLACKBOARD.

Course Management System Information: This class will be conducted through BLACKBOARD Course Management System.

Student Learning Outcomes: 1. The student will be able to apply the appropriate musical terminology when discussing specific music performances. 2. The student will be able to identify the important rock musicians / performers according to style, and place each in the correct historical period. 3. The student will be able to recognize sociological trends in American culture that have created modern pop culture and popular taste.

Useful Links:

Other:

DSPS Information: