Subject: Paralegal
Course Number: PARLGL 109
Section Number: 10817
Name of Class: Introduction to Law
Instructor: Lori H. Young, MPS
E-mail: lyoung@TVTtrustlaw.com
Semester: Summer 2014
Class Starting Date: June 17
Class Ending Date: August 7

Class Description: This course provides an overview of the history, philosophy, and practices of the legal profession, including paralegals, in the United States while introducing legal concepts, terms, and theories.

Other Course Materials Required: Recommended: Law dictionary or http://dictionary.law.com/

Initial instructions for beginning of class: This course is a hybrid course. We meet face-to-face every Tuesday during the summer session; however, we will meet face-to-face on Tuesday and Thursday during the first week of class and the last week of class, i.e., 6/17 and 6/19; 8/5 and 8/7.

Testing regulations (included proctoring guidelines link):

Course Management System Information: Blackboard is the course management system.

Student Learning Outcomes: 1. Distinguish the role of the various members of a legal team, including paralegal and attorney. 2. Differentiate different forms of law, including civil, criminal, state, and federal.

Useful Links: http://www.canyons.edu/Offices/DistanceLearning/Pages/Blackboard.aspx

Other: Welcome to Introduction to Law for Paralegals, PARLGL 101. My name is Lori Young and I am a full-time paralegal with 25+ years of legal experience and an adjunct instructor with 15+ years of teaching experience. I obtained my master's degree in Paralegal Studies from George Washington University, and I love the paralegal profession! I look forward to meeting you and spending my summer evenings with you.

DSPS Information: COC provides services for students with disabilities in compliance with the American Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.