Subject: Spanish
Course Number: 101
Section Number: 16831 and 16832
Name of Class: Elem Spanish I
Instructor: Jose F. Martin
E-mail: jose.martin@canyons.edu
Semester: Fall 2015
Class Starting Date: August 24
Class Ending Date: December 12

Class Description: This is a 4 unit HYBRID class (1 part on campus and 3 parts online): one hour per week of face-to-face instruction (for the speaking and testing), and the other three hours online (reading, writing, and listening practice). The class develops language skills in listening, reading, speaking and writing within a cultural context with a strong emphasis on communication. Emphasizes acquisition of vocabulary, structures, and grammatical patterns necessary for comprehension and production of spoken and written Spanish at the beginning level. Taught in Spanish. Corresponds to the first two years of high-school Spanish. Not appropriate for native or heritage speakers. Spanish 101 will cover introductory Spanish, from the present to the preterit tense.

Textbook and Access code information, including costs: Students will purchase access an online textbook, workbook, and online practice site for "Exploraciones". More information on the first day of class.

Other Course Materials Required: Computer with internet access for the online components of the class. Software able to read and write in commonly-used formats. Printer, paper and ink to print handouts and some of the homework. The approximate cost will be sixty five dollars.
Initial instructions for beginning of class: Please ensure that you attend the first class meeting for the orientation to the class. Students who miss the first day will be dropped from the class.

Testing regulations (included proctoring guidelines link): Exams will take place in person, during the on-campus class meetings.