The COC Honors Program invites students to become an Honors Liaison. Selected students will help inform the campus community about the benefits and requirements of COC Honors and its related club and societies. In addition, Honors Liaisons will engage in a variety of outreach and recruitment activities, as well as work directly with Honors students, faculty and staff. Liaisons will have the opportunity to participate fully in the facilitation of the Honors program at COC.

What qualifications does an Honors student need to become an Honors Liaison?

- Acceptance into COC Honors Program and in good academic standing (e.g., 3.25 GPA or above)
- Completed at least six units of Honors coursework successfully
- Interest to share academic experiences with other students
- Ability to serve as a liaison between COC Honors Program and the campus community
- Demonstrated written and oral communication skills
- Readiness to convey knowledge about the requirements and activities of the Honors Club and the numerous Honors societies
- Enthusiasm to participate as a member of the Honors Club or an Honor Society preferred but not required

What kinds of activities and events can a student select from to meet the requirements of the Honors Liaison program?

- Participate in on-campus outreach events
• Convey program information to students who visit the Honors/Club room in LTCL-133

• Visit high school classes and attend related college orientations or college fairs

• Assist in the planning and organizing of the COC Annual Honors Awards Banquet

• Serve as a student representative of the COC Honors Steering Committee and attend weekly meetings

• Create an electronic-based COC Honors newsletter each semester entitled Carpe diem—Seize the day

• Disseminate program information to new and continuing students

• Attend the annual COC Honors Leadership Workshop. Schedule classroom information sessions and facilitate COC Honors presentations

What are the benefits of becoming an Honors Liaison?

• Fosters social networks among Honors students

• Ensures the success of the COC Honors Program

• Strengthens interpersonal, communication, and writing skills

• Builds resumes

• Provides service credit and enhances Student Develop Transcripts

How do students apply to the COC Honors Liaison Program?

Complete the application form and return to SECO-308. For more information about COC Honors, please see http://www.canyons.edu/Offices/Honors/ or contact Dr. Patty Robinson, Dean, Social Sciences and Business Division, at patty.robinson@canyons.edu.
Honors Student Liaison Program

Application

Name: _________________________________     Student ID#: ___________
Address: _______________________________   City: ___________________
State: _______                                     Zip: ______________
Telephone Number: ______________  Cell Phone Number: ________________
Email Address: ____________________________________________________

**************************************************************

Honors Courses Completed to Date:

Expected Date of Transfer: ________________________________

Transfer Institution(s): _______________________________________

Major(s): ___________________________________________________

Please obtain the signature of one COC faculty member who recommends you become an Honors Ambassador.

Faculty Name: ____________________________   Department: ___________

Signature: ___________________________ Date: ___________
