16th Annual Classified Development Day
April 8, 2014
Meeting new people!

Classified Development Day began with two fun icebreaker activities. Everyone enjoyed meeting new classified staff members and reconnecting with each other.
Fern Zalin-Jones and Jesse Munoz are consulting with each other on the “autograph” activity.
Everyone enjoyed the “circles” icebreaker, including Felicia Walker!
Gina Thompson, Carina Aasted, Chloe McGinley and Wendy Trujillo
Colette Blanchard, Lin Betancourt and Rick Olsen
Board member Bruce Fortine stopped by to congratulate the classified staff on a job well done!
Diane Fiero provided the opening remarks and board member Bruce Fortine wished the classified staff a wonderful event!
Presenter Gina Rae Hendrickson at her session on 1,500 unspoken rules in the workplace – a very popular session!
Presenter Pauline Arneberg brought cultural artifacts from her world travels to share with the participants at her session.
COC adjunct professor Greg Shrouut had everyone laughing in his session on generations in the workplace!
Evis Wilson, Naomi Taniguchi, and Anh Nguyen presented a session on the International Students Program.
COC Adjunct Professor, Rebecca Kroll, shared tips and tools on how to recycle and reduce our environmental footprint.
Tango Mango brought Italian Ice and Tiffy Lee Cakes brought cupcakes for everyone! Sharon Kramer, Sherilyn Plevack, and Gail Ishimoto enjoyed their treat!
The cupcakes were a big hit!
Our keynote presenters, Walter and Janet Jackson
Everyone was up and dancin’ to kick off the keynote session!
Walter and Janet Jackson got everyone thinking about their behavioral style and how to use that knowledge to communicate more effectively at work.
Everyone had fun in the afternoon!
Thank you for participating in the 16th annual Classified Development Day!

See you at next year’s event!
