The ITL offers a collection of course-length workshops on teaching. For some individuals, these courses support a program for salary advancement. Other individuals take the courses purely for professional development or to satisfy a California community college "Flex requirement." Please access the links below for more information about registration and course content.

ITL Course-Length Workshops

- ITL 088: Introduction to Educational Technology (17 hours, equivalent to 1 unit)
- ITL 101: Fundamentals of Teaching (36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- ITL 106: Introduction to Online Teaching & Learning (36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- ITL 107: Intermediate Online Teaching & Learning (36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- ITL 108: Increasing Student Engagement in Online Teaching and Learning (36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- Case Studies in College Teaching (17 hours, equivalent to 1 unit OR 36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- Classroom Observation (18 hours, equivalent to 1 unit)
- Community College Education (36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- Microteaching (36 hours, equivalent to 2 units)
- Skilled Teacher Certificate (54 hours, equivalent to 3 units)