Library Policies

The ID Card
Your student ID card is also your Library card. Your card is permanent - you don't need to apply for a new one each semester. Once you enroll at the college and obtain an ID card, you are always welcome to use our materials, even when you are not enrolled in classes. You must present your ID card when checking out materials.

Fines and Fees
We do not charge daily overdue fines for most items. If materials are kept past their due date, you may be billed for the replacement cost of the items. You will need to return the materials or pay the bill to clear the hold placed on your records in the Admissions & Records Office.

We do charge $1/day fines for overdue 3-day reserve books. These fines will cumulate to a maximum of $50 and will not be refunded when the book is returned. An additional replacement fee will be charged if the book not returned.

We will charge fees for repair or replacement of damaged items.

Renewals and Holds
- You can renew most Library materials by bringing them to the circulation desk on each floor.
- You may not be allowed to renew books if they are overdue.
- You cannot renew an item if another student or staff member has placed a hold on it.
- You can usually place a hold on an item, reserving your right to check it out at the end of its current circulation period.

Circulation Periods
Books (including audiobooks): 2 weeks (two renewals allowed)
Music CDs: 1 week (3 CD Limit) (two renewals allowed)
Periodicals: New issues are room use only. Older issues may circulate for 3 days (two renewals allowed)
Pamphlets: 1 week (two renewals allowed)
Reference Books: Room use only
Reserve Materials: Room use only or Instructor-designated check out period (no renewals allowed)
Opposing Viewpoints Books: 3 days (two renewals allowed)
DVDS/VHS: Room use only (instructors can check out for two weeks)

Parking
Public parking is available in several lots with the purchase of a $2.00 day pass from the vending machines in the parking lots.

SCILNET (Community borrowing)
The community is welcome to use the library; however, only College of the Canyons students may check out materials. Temporary borrowing privileges can be arranged with a SCILNET card available through Santa Clarita Public Library or CalArts. COC students may get a SCILNET card for temporary access to these other libraries.
