Note: the library expansion that opened in October 2012 included additional group study space. Individual keys for the rooms are reflected in circulation statistics for that fiscal year.
Up Close and Personal
College of the Canyons Library

Recent accomplishments
• Hosting student artwork
  • COC student art collection
  • art and architecture students
• Partnership with TLC
  • sharing software
  • Proposed cataloging of books
• Summer inventory and collection maintenance
  • Systematic and including Canyon Country
• Temporary homes in the Library
  • Sustainability Center
  • Upward Bound

Interesting data
• Spring 2012
  • 7217 reserve items circulated
  • 346 study room bookings
• Spring 2013

• Data is taken from circulation data in the library’s system. Study room bookings are counted through circulation of room keys to student groups.

Future directions
• Accreditation
• Documentation
• Increased/improved service at Canyon Country
• Exploring additional electronic resources (databases, more e-books)
• Increase highlighting of student achievements on campus (exhibits, partner with Sustainability Centre)

Something to be proud of…

Fern Zalin Jones, COC Humanitarian of the Year 2013
In her words: “I’m so proud to have won this, truly. I wish I could remember what Dr. Van Hook said, but I was so surprised.”
We’re all proud of Fern and how she has contributed to the COC and Santa Clarita communities.
