In his young career, ukulele wizard Jake Shimabukuro has already redefined a heretofore under-the-radar instrument, been declared a musical “hero” by Rolling Stone, won accolades from the disparate likes of Eddie Vedder, Perez Hilton and Dr. Sanjay Gupta, wowed audiences on TV (Jimmy Kimmel, Conan), earned comparisons to Jimi Hendrix and Miles Davis, and even played for the Queen of England.

You’ve never heard the ukulele played the Jake Shimabukuro way, and his playing is sure to leave you happily shocked and surprised that such magnificent music can come from such a tiny instrument.

“Jake is taking the instrument to a place that I can’t see anybody else catching up with.”

SANTA CLARITA MASTER CHORALE

COMFORT AND JOY
Sun, Dec 15, 2013 at 3:30pm
All the joy of the season is yours with “Glorias” from two memorably melodic contemporary composers: California’s Kevin Memley and England’s Karl Jenkins. The Santa Clarita Children’s Choir joins us, plus time for a little twinkle in your eye as the Chorale presents “Twelve and a Half Days of Christmas,” a bit of comedic comfort courtesy of a cappella group “Straight No Chaser.”

THERE WILL BE REST
Sun, Mar 30, 2014 at 3:30pm
You will find “imagination and melancholy” in American composer Samuel Barber’s “Prayers of Kirkegaard,” an intimate mixture of chant, counterpoint, and orchestra that celebrate a profound hope in God. Prayers between the great wars of the last century were the motivation for Ralph Vaughan Williams’ “Dona Nobis Pacem” and angelic Frank Ticheli’s soulful a cappella meditation that give us our winter concert title, “There Will Be Rest.”

IT’S ABOUT TIME
Sun, June 1, 2014 at 3:30pm
Clocks and Calendars give us the theme for the Chorale’s summer concert. From the “Sunrise Mass” by Norwegian composer Ola Gjeilo to “Evening Watch” by Gustav Holst and “One Day More” from Les Miserables, we offer up music from around the clock and around the globe, including selections from the Santa Clarita Children’s Choir.

Parking:
College of the Canyons has ample parking for all events held on its campus. For performances on Monday through Friday evenings, parking is not available in Lots 1, 2 or 3 until after 7 p.m. However, for evening performances Monday through Friday, parking is available in Lots 4, 5, 6 or 7 one hour prior to the scheduled event time. For performances on Saturday or Sunday, parking is available in Lots 1 through 7 starting two hours prior to event time and until two hours after the event ends. Please visit the Website or contact the Box Office for additional information.

Black Box Theater:
( Theater located on the northwest end of the PAC).
The Black Box is a unique “flexible seating” venue featuring new and experimental productions. Due to the nature of the venue, the exact number of seats available for performances is often not known until closer to opening night. Therefore, a limited number of seats will be placed on sale at the beginning of the season until the exact seating count has been confirmed by the technical staff. All seating in the Black Box Theater is General Admission — on a first-come first-served basis.

Suitable for Youth:
Performances throughout the season represent a wide range of artistic expression and audience appeal. While many performances may be inappropriate for younger children, it is always best to read the event description and content notes of every performance so you can make the best decision for your family and children. Children ages two and older will require a ticket for entrance. Some shows may not be suitable for children under two.

Volunteer Ushers:
We continue to have opportunities for volunteers to serve on our Front of House team. As a volunteer, you get to see the performance you are ushering and earn credits toward free tickets to see upcoming productions! To volunteer, please visit our website at canyons.edu/Offices/PIO/CanyonsPAC/contact.html, contact the Volunteer Usher Program at 661-362-5306 or email at patronservices@canyons.edu.
