Welcome!

The Public Information Office at College of the Canyons is responsible for a variety of functions, the most important of which is the timely dissemination of news and information to the community about the college's programs and services.

Responsibilities include:

- Media relations and public affairs
- District publications and marketing material
- Advertising (print, broadcast and online)
- Sports information and marketing
- Performing Arts Center marketing
- Graphic design services
- Reprographics (prepress, printing and duplication)
- Switchboard and mailroom
- Website development and maintenance