

PRE Memorial Day Event

May 25, 2017

@ 2 pm

Mentry Hall 305

Please join us for a film viewing of

Debt of Honor Disabled Veterans in American History

"There is a real necessity to bridge the gap between civilians and those who have served in the military. It is our hope that the film will encourage a candid discussion in communities across the country, and create understanding and awareness of the sacrifices involved in military service."— Ric Burns, American documentary filmmaker and writer

Military Friendly Activity for the Campus Community
(Veterans, Students, Faculty, and Staff)
Flex Credit Pending Approval