Join the Friends of the FINE ARTS

We invite you to join the Friends of the Fine Arts at College of the Canyons. Through membership and other activities, the Friends of the Fine Arts works to enrich lives by enhancing the art education experience for students and the community. Proceeds generated through membership and other activities benefit our students and the Art Gallery directly. These funds are used to augment gallery exhibitions, programs, lecture series and student awards for excellence, and to increase educationally related offerings in the gallery.

The shape of the 1500-square-foot Art Gallery is reminiscent of a Japanese fan. The arched ceiling, extended skylight and fiber-optic capabilities create an ethereal environment to display world-class exhibitions. The gallery strives to bring educational, cultural and other relevant exhibits to the college and the community. Past exhibitions have included the work of: Robert Glenn Ketchum, Gil Garcetti, Sam Francis, Francisco Goya and Brad Howe. The gallery is committed to public outreach opportunities that expand awareness of the fine arts. Past examples of these collaborations include: J. Paul Getty Museum, Vincent Price Gallery, Pomona Museum, Meridian Foundation, as well as local high schools and community organizations.

For information on future exhibitions please go to: <http://www.canyons.edu/offices/artgallery/> or for information about the gallery please call (661) 362-3612.

Since 1996, the Friends of the Fine Arts has operated as part of the College of the Canyons Foundation. This partnership allows the art gallery to:

- Enrich lives through arts education.
- Support student success through awards for excellence in the fine arts.
- Provide ongoing exhibitions, lectures and activities at no cost to the community.
- Maximize gifts through tax-deductible contributions.

For more information about the Friends of the Fine Arts, please call the College of the Canyons Foundation at (661) 326-3435 or (661) 362-3434.
