ABOUT THE DISTRICT:

Innovative. Collaborative. Entrepreneurial. These characteristics define not only College of the Canyons, but the faculty, staff, and administrators who make this college one of the most unique among California's 113 community colleges.

College of the Canyons is among the fastest growing community colleges in the nation. It is widely recognized as a model community college for enhancing student access, success, and equity. In fact, its completion rates rank among the highest in the state. The college has also established a well-deserved reputation for bolstering economic development, and offering innovative career technical education responsive to industry needs.

The college has served the dynamic, growing Santa Clarita Valley and surrounding regions within a 367-square-mile area of northern Los Angeles County since 1969. Visionary leadership combined with a steady infusion of new residents and businesses create a spirit of possibilities that inspires the college to be flexible, creative, and attuned to the evolving needs of the community. The growing diversity of the community is mirrored by the college's designation as a Hispanic Serving Institution.

The college's influence in the community is reflected by the dozens of collaborative partnerships it has forged with school districts, regional government entities, and service organizations. Thousands of children visit the college's Performing Arts Center annually thanks to the K-12 Arts Education Outreach initiative. Together, the City of Santa Clarita and the college operate the WorkSource Center to connect job seekers with employers. And, Academy of the Canyons, an early/middle college high school ranked in the top 10 percent of high schools in the nation, operates on the Valencia campus in partnership with the William S. Hart Union High School District

With campuses in Valencia and Canyon Country, College of the Canyons offers 83 degree and 68 certificate programs, more than twice the number offered 10 years ago. Classes are offered during traditional fall and spring semesters, as well as shorter, intensive summer and winter sessions. In addition, the University Center at the Valencia campus offers 30 bachelor's and master's degree programs, as well as a variety of certificates and credentials, from partnering four-year colleges and universities.

Because of the college's commitment to meeting the needs of the community, local voters have approved three bond measures valued at more than $470 million since 2001. The college also secures substantial funds from the state, and millions of dollars in grants each year that allow new, cutting-edge programs to be developed and facilities to be built to accommodate them.

Given its commitment to growth and innovation, College of the Canyons sets a new standard for what a college can achieve. It is a vital cultural, educational and economic force in the region. Join us here, and you will discover unexpected opportunities, the freedom to innovate, and a chance to shape the future.

 5. Give examples of retention or outreach events that you were in charge of that were in support of a special population, including how you increased interest and attendance, and what the effects were on the special population.
 6. Describe your experience providing clerical/administrative support in the workplace. Describe how your work supported your manager or department, including your methods for organizing multiple projects, meeting deadlines, and managing daily work with possible constant interruption of phone calls and people walking in the door.
 7. Describe a time when you had a conflict with a student or member of the general public in a work environment. How did you de-escalate the issue and move it to a final resolution?
 8. Give examples of times when you have had to handle requests coming to you that were confusing or vague. What steps did you take to clarify the needs of the requestor and determine the action steps necessary?

9. How tech-savvy are you?
10. Describe four personality attributes you have and explain how these attributes would contribute to your success in this position.
11. Please explain why you are interested in a position at the ISP and describe why you feel you are qualified for this staff position.

- Letters of reference are optional.

Please note:

- Skills evaluation of candidates for interview may be required.
- Travel and relocation expenses are the responsibility of the applicant.
- Hiring committees review all complete, qualified application packets. Possession of the minimum qualifications does not guarantee an interview.
- "Experience" generally refers to relevant paid experience. In some instances, unpaid experience may be counted as experience towards meeting the minimum qualifications or requirements for the position only if it entailed responsibilities substantially similar to those of relevant paid positions in the field. It is the applicant's responsibility to provide sufficient information and details to the Human Resources office at the time of submission of their application packet. Details should include the organization, contact name and contact information, start and end dates, hours per week, and a list of relevant unpaid/volunteer duties or responsibilities performed. Not all unpaid experience may qualify. Upon offer of employment, an applicant will be required to obtain written verification(s) of any relevant unpaid/volunteer experience.
