Initial Instructions for the Beginning of Class: As soon as the course begins, please access the course at: https://coc.instructure.com/login/canvas, read the syllabus, and finish the Check In Assignment by the due date or you will be dropped. Make sure that you have an updated email address on file, as I regularly contact students through email.

If your course does not appear in Canavs please check the following things before calling Canvas tech support:

- Has the class officially started?
- Did you pay for the course?
- Do you have any holds on your account that would deny you access?
- Has it been more than 24 hours since you have added the class to your My Canyons account?

If you are still having problems and none of these are an issue please contact Canvas tech support at the following:
Phone: 877-889-9052

Please do NOT contact the instructor regarding Canvas-related problems! However, do email the instructor with any questions or issues related to course content.

For Information on Distance Learning: http://www.canyons.edu/distancelearning

Other: Courses will contain a combination of PowerPoint lectures, video clips, discussion forums, online PowerPoint presentation projects, research and reflection papers, multiple choice exams, and textbook and article readings. Plan to spend just as much time doing the work for this class as you would for an in-person course. Remember that online courses are student-driven. This means that it will be YOUR responsibility to read the material, do the work, keep track of deadlines, and notify me if you have any questions.

DSPS Information: I make every effort to accommodate students with disabilities in my courses, as long as proper documentation is presented to me at the beginning of the course or with adequate time before relevant exams and assignments. If you think that you may have a learning disability, please visit the DSPS office, or contact me for more information.
Please refer to the syllabus each week for policies, assignments, and due dates. I am looking forward to a fun and productive semester together! Welcome to Sociology!
