Course Description: Elementary Spanish I (Span 101) studies Spanish as a foreign language within its rich and relevant cultural contexts. It studies vocabulary, structures, and grammatical patterns necessary for comprehension and production of spoken and written Spanish at the college level by developing all four skills (reading, writing, listening, and speaking) and culture. Taught in Spanish. CSU/UC 4 Credits.

Course Content: Chapter 1 through chapter 6. Structures include present tense, progressive form, and preterit tense. Context relates to the student’s personal world (school, work, family, social life, food).

Course Attendance: The course is 100% online! It is imperative to be actively present (logged in). The content is delivered in weekly modules, requiring weekly completion. Students who show no activity in Canvas and/or ilrn for one week will be dropped from the course.

Required textbook: Custom ilrn Access Card for Blitt/Casas Exploraciones, 2015. The link for purchase of ebook in ilrn (containing all activities, assignments, tests, tutorials and more) at a discounted rate ($65.00) and course code (needed to register into this course) will be sent to all registered students a few days before class starts. You should purchase your book by the first day of classes.

Initial instructions: You will receive instructions on the textbook purchase and registration to ilrn (language learning management system) during the week prior to class. To avoid being dropped from the course as a “No Show”, you must login to the course website on Canvas on the first day of class and complete the introduction assignment no later than the second day of class at 11p.m.

Contact: I respond to emails within 24-36 hours during the week. If you write to me on the weekend, please expect my response to your email Monday morning.
Testing regulations: Tests are online in ilrn with the exception of the final oral exam (via skype, google hangout, or similar). There will be a total of five chapter exams, a midterm and a final exam both divided in oral and written parts. Additionally, there will be 2-4 mini-quizzes per chapter.
