

RAP SHEET

College of the Canyons | Administration of Justice

Spring Graduates

CONGRATULATIONS to all of our COC Spring 2022 graduates! Admin of Justice conferred 83 AS-T degrees and 20 A.S. degrees. We are proud of all of our graduates who demonstrated the proficiency, knowledge, and skills to successfully complete our program and are ready to enter the workforce or continue with their academic studies!

Now Hiring!!!

Police agencies across the region and State are currently hiring! Many of these listings are published by POST, which is linked in our Dept Webpage.

Dept. Webpage

Our Dept webpage is updated regularly. Find us at <https://www.canyons.edu/academics/justice/index.php>.

Admin Justice Advisory Board

Strong partnerships between community college educational institutions and employers are pillars in effective technical/occupational education programs. These partnerships ensure community ownership and build local support, commitment, and resources. In recognition of this fact, College of the Canyons Career Education Departments collaborate with industry professionals on many aspects of their programs.

Advisory committees are groups of local employers and community representatives who advise educators on the design, development, operation, evaluation, and revision of technical/occupational education programs. The

In the Spotlight: LA County Deputy Probation Officer Will Brigges

Will Brigges came to COC from High School. He graduated with his AS degree in Admin of Justice in 2011 and went on to complete his B.S. in 2013 from Cal State Northridge. Shortly thereafter, Will was hired by the LA County Probation Department as a Deputy Probation Officer (DPO).

Will is currently a DPO-2 assigned to the Residential Treatment Services Bureau. Will's current job entails working with in-custody juvenile probationers. Will is a recently certified POST Gracie Jiu Jitsu Defensive Tactics Instructor.

Will is a regular attendee at our COC Admin Justice Advisory Board meetings and has been instrumental in providing insight into incorporating lifestyle officer wellness techniques into our academic curriculum. As a Career Education program, Administration of Justice is committed in preparing our students for every success in their chosen career paths.

workplace knowledge and resources provided by committee members help to ensure that all aspects of technical/ occupational education reflect the needs and current conditions of the workplace and that program graduates are capable of successfully completing the next step whether it be employment or further education.

Sergeant II Desi Ehrlich is the Officer-In-Charge (OIC), of the LAPD, Gang & Narcotics Division, K-9 unit, which includes the Dept's bloodhound dogs.

Sgt. Ehrlich has been a long time supporter of the COC Admin of Justice program and is a valued member of our Advisory Board. Sgt. Ehrlich has enjoyed mentoring our AJ students and exposing them to police K-9 operations. He regularly provides valuable feedback on some of the latest trends impacting law enforcement operations and valuable insight into current critical incidents. We use this information to help create classroom scenarios so our students can benefit from best practices and lessons learned in order to be fully prepared to face the challenges of modern day policing.

