(5.6)

Dr. Van Hook noted that:

- Our 6% contingency is enabling us to deal with the instability of the state budget.
  - The dollars expected from the Recovery Act funding to the community colleges has dropped from $130 million to $37 million.
  - The legislature is in recess unless a special session is called.
  - Our bill, AB 172, has cleared all processes. Cameron Smyth's office is holding this bill until other legislation with water, energy and prisons is worked out. The Governor threatened to veto all bills sent to him unless he gets changes he needs in the budget. Once the Governor receives AB 172, he will have 12 days to sign the bill. If he does not, it automatically becomes law.
- He distributed a new "What They're Saying..." legislative update, written by Sen. Eric Harnish, and briefly highlighted the key issues included therein.

Update on Legislation (10.1)

Mr. Dermody noted that:

- On tomorrow's Academic Senate agenda, they plan to provide an update on FERPA (Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act).

Academic Senate
Report
(11.1)

Mr. Backes noted that:

- The Classified Senate has a new Secretary/Treasurer, Ms. Graciela Martinez.
- The next Senate meeting will be held September 16th and it will be a Mix and Mingle lunchtime meeting in the Facilities department.
- He thanked Mr. James Glapa-Grossklag, who sat in on their last business meeting and provided great feedback to the Senate.

Classified Senate
Report

Mr. Fortine was not present at the meeting to make a report.

Board Liaison
Committee Member
Report
(11.3)

Chancellor's Report (11.4)

Dr. Van Hook invited administrators to provide updates in their areas.

Ms. Fiero noted that:

- This semester's Professional Development mentor program orientation with 36 participants was held early this week.
- This Friday is the first "LEAP Ahead" session.
- A Department Showcase meeting will begin this Friday. Everyone is welcome to attend and learn more about many departments on campus.
- Saturday, September 19th is the Betty Ferguson Foundation's Woman of Honor dinner, where Dr. Van Hook will be honored.

Mr. McElwain added that:

- The Mentry Hall Groundbreaking ceremony will be held tomorrow at 10:30am.

Mr. Schrage announced that:

- The COC hockey team has their first game coming up. The Board members asked Mr. Schrage to send them this season's schedule.

Dr. Gribbons added that:

- He attended the "Get Schooled" conference, hosted by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.
- Next Monday, the COC Foundation golf tournament will be held.

Dr. Capet announced that:

- Along with the Skills for Success program, we are enlarging our honors program, and faculty members are creating full honors classes.

Dr. Wilding and Ms. Coleal had nothing additional to report.

Dr. Van Hook noted that:

- The Mentry Hall expansion, funded by Measure M funds, will hold the ground breaking ceremony tomorrow. This is the first "design-build" project for community colleges and is a test.
- A Resume Rally, hosted by the Career Services department, will be held 10-6pm on September 23rd.
- She spoke with a reporter from The Signal today, who indicated she was going to attend classes for her Master's program through the University Center and was thrilled to be doing so.
- Linda Umbdenstock from the Hewlett Packard project called to coordinate on our role in the upcoming Leaders for Success conference. COC is one of 3 designated leaders, and will be receiving an award at the conference.
- We will be interviewing Mr. George Dyer, the original owner of the Honey House on the Canyon Country Campus when he is in Santa Clarita in October to celebrate his 92nd birthday. The interview will be part of our oral history project.
- She has been in contact with the California Community College Foundation regarding the announcement of the GATES grant winners.

Mr. Cardenas noted that:

- He attended the SCV Economic Town Hall meeting.
- The ASG will be holding a Board Candidate Forum on campus. Invitations will be sent out once they secure dates and times.

Mr. Wilk noted that:

- At the invitation of the City, he will be taking a tour of Channel 20.
- He has heard from many people who were disappointed that they could not get tickets to Pat Benatar. He recommended they buy "Chancellor's Choice" season tickets next year to ensure they get into the shows they want to see.
