815. COMPUTER AND NETWORK USE FOR FACULTY, STAFF, AND ADMINISTRATORS

Employees who use District computers, networks, related resources and the information they contain have a responsibility not to abuse those resources and to respect the rights of others. The Superintendent-President shall establish procedures that provide guidelines to staff for the appropriate use of information technologies. The procedures shall include that users must respect software copyrights and licenses, respect the integrity of computer based information resources, refrain from seeking to gain unauthorized access, and respect the rights of other computer users.

PROCEDURES FOR IMPLEMENTING BOARD POLICY 815 Computer and Network Use for Faculty, Staff and Administrators

Reference:

Education Code Section 70902

The District computer and network systems are the sole property of the Santa Clarita Community College District. The computer and network systems are for District instructional and work-related purposes only. Any person without proper authorization of the District may not use these resources.

This procedure applies to all District faculty, staff, and administrators and to others granted use of District information resources (referred to hereafter as users). This procedure refers to all District information resources whether individually controlled or shared, stand-alone, or networked. It applies to all computer and computer communication facilities owned, leased, operated, or contracted by the District. This includes personal computers, workstations, mainframes, minicomputers, associated peripherals, websites and electronic mail, software and information resources, regardless of whether used for administration, research, teaching or other purposes.

Conditions of Use

Computer Support Services (CSS) may define additional conditions of use for information resources under their control. These statements must be consistent with this overall procedure but may provide additional detail, guidelines, and/or restrictions.

Legal Process

This procedure exists within the framework of other District Board policies and state and federal laws. However, this procedure is not intended to restrict the academic freedom of the faculty as stated in other District Board policies. A user of District information resources who is found to have violated any of these procedures will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including but not limited to, loss of information resources privileges, disciplinary suspension or termination from employment, and/or civil or criminal legal action.

Copyrights and Licenses

Computer users must respect copyrights and licenses to software and other on-line information.

- Copying – Software protected by copyright may not be copied except as expressly permitted by the owner of the copyright or otherwise permitted by copyright law. Protected software may not be copied into, from, or by any District facility or system, except pursuant to a valid license or as otherwise permitted by copyright law.
- Number of Simultaneous Users – The number and distribution of copies must be handled in such a way that the number of simultaneous users in a department does not exceed the number of original copies purchased by that department, unless otherwise stipulated in the purchase contract.
- Copyrights – In addition to software, all other copyrighted information (text, images, icons, programs, etc.) retrieved from computer or network resources must be used in conformance with applicable copyrights and other law. Copied material must be properly attributed. Plagiarism of computer information is prohibited in the same way that plagiarism of any other protected work is prohibited.

Integrity of Information Resources

Computer users must respect the integrity of computer-based information resources.

- Modification or Removal of Equipment – Computer users must not attempt to modify or remove computer equipment, software, or peripherals that are owned or leased by the District without proper authorization.
- Unauthorized Use – Computer users must not interfere with others access and use of the District computers. This includes but is not limited to the sending of chain letters or excessive messages, either locally or off-campus; printing excess copies of documents, files, data, or programs, running grossly inefficient programs when efficient alternatives are known by the user to be available; unauthorized modification of system facilities, operating systems, or disk partitions; attempting to crash or tie up a District computer or network; and damaging or vandalizing District computing facilities, equipment, software or computer files.
- Unauthorized Programs – Computer users must not intentionally develop or use programs which disrupt other computer users, or which access private or restricted portions of the system, or which damage the software or hardware components of the system. Computer users must ensure that they do not use programs or utilities that interfere with other computer users or that modify normally protected or restricted portions of the system or user accounts. The use of any unauthorized or destructive program will result in disciplinary action as provided in this procedure, and may further lead to civil or criminal legal proceedings.

Unauthorized Access

Computer users must not seek to gain unauthorized access to information resources and must not assist any other persons to gain unauthorized access.

- Abuse of Computing Privileges – Users of District information resources must not access computers, computer software, computer data or information, or networks without proper authorization, or intentionally enable others to do so, regardless of whether the computer, software, data, information, or network in question is owned by the District. For example, abuse of the networks to which the District belongs or the computers at other sites connected to those networks will be treated as an abuse of District computing privileges.
- Reporting Problems – Any defects discovered in system accounting or system security must be reported promptly to the appropriate system administrator so that steps can be taken to investigate and solve the problem.
- Password Protection – A computer user who has been authorized to use a password-protected account may be subject to both civil and criminal liability if the user discloses the password or otherwise makes the account available to others without permission of the system administrator.

Usage

Computer users must respect the rights of other computer users. Attempts to circumvent these mechanisms in order to gain unauthorized access to the system or to another person's information are a violation of District procedure and may violate applicable law.

- Unlawful Messages – Users may not use electronic communication facilities to send defamatory, fraudulent, harassing, obscene, threatening, or other messages that violate applicable federal, state, or other law or District policy, or which constitute the unauthorized release of confidential information.
- Commercial Usage – Electronic communication facilities may not be used to transmit commercial or personal advertisements, solicitations or promotions (see Commercial Use, below). Public discussion groups may be designated by CSS for selling items and may be used appropriately, according to the stated purpose of the group(s).
- Information Belonging to Others – Users must not intentionally seek or provide information on, obtain copies of, or modify data files, programs, or passwords belonging to other users, without the permission of those other users.
- Rights of Individuals – Users must not release any individual’s (student, faculty, administrator and staff) personal information to anyone without proper authorization.
- User Identification – Users shall not send communications or messages anonymously or without accurately identifying the originating account or station.
- Accurate Information: Users shall not knowingly post on the District’s Web server or distribute by any other electronic means information that the user knows to be inaccurate or in violation of other Board policies or District procedures.
- Political, Personal and Commercial Use – The District is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization and, as such, is subject to specific federal, state, and local laws regarding sources of income, political activities, use of property and similar matters.
 - Political Use – District information resources must not be used for partisan political activities where prohibited by federal, state or other applicable laws.
 - Personal Use – District information resources should not be used for personal activities not related to appropriate District functions, except in a purely incidental manner.
 - Commercial Use – District information resources should not be used for commercial purposes. Users also are reminded that the domains registered by the District on the Internet have rules restricting or prohibiting commercial use, and users may not conduct inappropriate activities within those domains.

Nondiscrimination

All users have the right to be free from any conduct connected with the use of Santa Clarita Community College District network and computer resources which discriminates against any person on the basis of ethnic group identity, religion, sex, age, color, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, veteran’s status, mental or physical disability including persons with AIDS/ARC/HIV. No user shall use the District network and computer resources to transmit any message, create any communication of any kind, or store information which violates any District policy, District procedure, state law, or Federal law regarding discrimination or harassment, or which is defamatory or obscene, or which constitutes the unauthorized release of confidential information.

Disclosure

No Expectation of Privacy – The District reserves the right to monitor all use of the District network and computer resources to assure compliance with these procedures. Users should be aware that they have no expectation of privacy in the use of the District network and computer resources. The District will exercise this right only for legitimate District purposes, including, but not limited to, ensuring compliance with this procedure and the integrity and security of the system.

Possibility of Disclosure – Users must be aware of the possibility of unintended disclosure of communications.

Retrieval – It is possible for information entered on or transmitted via computer and communications systems to be retrieved, even if a user has deleted such information.

Public Records – The California Public Records Act (Government Code Section 6250 et seq) includes computer transmissions in the definition of “public record” and nonexempt communications made on the District network and computer must be disclosed, if requested by a member of the public.

Litigation – Computer transmissions may be discoverable in litigation.

Dissemination And User Acknowledgment

All users shall be provided copies of these procedures and be directed to familiarize themselves with them. All users will be asked to sign or electronically accept the following statement acknowledging their responsibilities under Board Policy 815.

I understand that I have been granted access to the District’s Information Technology resources and may have access to confidential information. I agree to abide by the standards set forth in this procedure and I am aware that violations of the Board Policy on Computer and Network Usage (Board Policy 815) may subject me to disciplinary action.

Furthermore, all users of the District information system will be presented with the following statement when logging onto the system:
