Course Title: Business Law
Course Code: BUS 211
Professor: Judith M. Sack, judith.sack@canyons.edu
Format: On Ground; web-enhanced
Course Length: 16 weeks

Introduction
As a lawyer, I will draw upon my professional experiences and training both in the United States and abroad to enrich our learning experience, as you will add to my well of understanding of the macro view of the law. Our course work will focus on the core areas of the laws governing business.

Together we will strive to get the most out of our studies while having the greatest amount of fun! Your participation and creativity will give our experience that superior edge.

Course Description
This course shall highlight mastering the foundations of the American legal system and the legal principles that regulate the conduct of business. We will cover core areas of the law governing our system, regulating relations between people, business and society, property, contracts, business organizations, banking and e-commerce.

Web Enhanced: This course will be enhanced through the Canvass Learning Management System. This system will provide supplemental learning activities and support for current course work. Additionally, assignments shall be uploaded into each student's drop box for the module the assignment is due and grades will be available online. Further instructions will be set out in our syllabus, discussed and distributed in class and within the Canvas course platform, see below.

Course Information
Our learning environment will consist of numerous online collaborative discussions and activities in which we shall learn from and educate each other. Similarly, we shall assess our mastery with exams, assessment of business problems, as well as independent exploration and analysis of key legal concepts influencing the business world.
