Course Length: 8 weeks

Introduction
This 8-week course will be co-taught by two instructors, Dr. João Junqueira, and Fiorella Chauca. We will facilitate your learning experience this semester in this 100% online language course. We hope that you find us always available and ready to help. We also hope that all Spanish influences around you in street names, people you have met, fiestas (parties) you have attended, and even foods and music you have enjoyed find maximum expression in this course, and bring out the Spanish speaker in you.

Course Description
Course Description Spanish 102 is the second semester of College level Spanish. It covers vocabulary, and grammatical patterns necessary for comprehension and production of spoken and written Spanish, through a task based approach in order to help students develop communicative competence in all four skills areas (listening, reading, speaking and writing). An important goal is to provide a cross-cultural understanding of Latin American societies. As you study the text, learn about the diversity and rich cultures of the Spanish-speaking peoples and share the learning experience with other online students. CSU/UC 4 Credits.

Course Information
Student Learning Outcomes: 1. Demonstrate competence by communicating through reading, writing, speaking, and listening in Spanish at the novice high level 2. Analyze the relationship between perspectives, practices and products of the Spanish culture at the novice high level.
Course Attendance: The content will be delivered in modules, requiring weekly completion. You will need to login to Canvas at least two-three times per week to keep up with postings and to check for updates from your instructor. Students who do not login and complete the self-introductory discussion posting and syllabus quiz by 11p.m. on Oct. 16 will be dropped from the course as a No Show. Testing regulations: Tests are online, including the midterm oral and the final oral exam (via skype). There will be a total of five chapter exams, a midterm oral, and a final exam divided in oral and written parts. Additionally, there will be 2-4 mini-quizzes per chapter.
