Course Description: Span 102 studies Spanish as a foreign language within its rich and relevant cultural contexts. The teaching and learning approach is proficiency-oriented, communicative and task-based, in order to help students develop communicative competence in all four skill areas (listening, reading, speaking and writing). The goal of this course is to increase the ability to communicate in Spanish. In addition to mastering communicative and functional skills, an important goal is to provide a cross-cultural understanding of Peninsular and Latin American societies. This course is taught entirely in Spanish. 4 credit units.

Course Content: Major structures presented include preterit tense, present perfect, imperfect, direct and indirect object pronouns, formal and negative informal commands, conditional, future tense, and subjunctive. Context relates to the student’s personal world (shopping, parties and vacations, travel, relationships, work, and the environment).

Course Attendance: The course is hybrid. It meets online and with face-to-face weekly meetings on Tuesdays 5:00 – 7:05 P.M. at BONH 14. Face to face meetings will focus on the listening and speaking skills while online will focus on reading, writing, and culture. It is essential to have an online presence and to log in at least twice during the week.

Required textbook: Information will be sent to all registered students by email.

Initial instructions: You will receive instructions on the textbook purchase and registration to ilrn (language learning management system) during the week prior to class.

Contact: The best way to reach me is via email (email above). You may leave a message at (661) 362-3552.
Testing regulations: Tests are online in ilrn or Canvas and face to face. There will be a total of four chapter exams, a midterm and a final exam both divided in oral and written parts. Additionally, there will 1-2 mini-quizzes per chapter.

Learning Course Management System Information: There are two components in this course: 1-Canvas, an LMS for our course requirements such us announcements, modules, and other activities. Log into Canvas http://cv.canyons.edu on the first scheduled day of class. Login information and helpful guides are provided on the website; 2- ilrn (Spanish Lab), register/sign up for ilrn with your purchased code and course code. More information at http://www.cengage.com/ilrn/ (for your ebook, assignments, tutorials, gradebook, videos, and exams)

Other Materials Required: Computer with Internet access. Make sure your microphone is working properly.

DSPS Information: If you have a documented disability and wish to receive services including special testing conditions, you must register with DSP&S and inform me of your needs at least 1 week prior to the assignment requiring accommodations. For more information, call (661) 362-3341.

Student Learning Outcomes:
1. Demonstrate competence by communicating through reading, writing, speaking, and listening in Spanish at the novice high level
2. Analyze the relationship between perspectives, practices and products of the Spanish culture at the novice high level

Success in this course: Being successful in an online class is learning the material and the other part is being comfortable with the format so that you can access the material.