

Certificate of Achievement: Music Composition

Through the technical and historical study of works ranging from the Baroque to the 21st century, as well as a comprehensive study in orchestration and structural analysis, students will develop the means to compose original music and to emulate the various styles from the past. Student compositions will be performed by college-based ensembles.

Certificate Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

- Compose well structured original music in the Classical, Modern and Contemporary styles.
- Arrange and orchestrate music for various chamber and symphonic instrumental ensembles.
