Common Course Numbering (CCN)
California Assembly Bill 1111, or AB 1111, also known as the "Common Course Numbering" bill, aims to simplify the transfer process for students within the California Community Colleges (CCC) system. The bill requires that CCC courses satisfying similar requirements, like general education or major requirements, share the same course number across all CCCs. This standardization helps students more easily identify transferable courses. The course renumbering will be implemented in phases, allowing time for institutions to align courses gradually. Below are the current implemented CCNs:
ENGL C1000 (formerly ENGL 101)	PSYC C1000 (formerly PSYCH 101)	STAT C1000 (formerly MATH 140)
ENGL C1000H (formerly ENGL 101H)	PSYC C1000H (formerly PSYCH 101H)	STAT C1000E (formerly MATH 140X)
