

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

BEGINNING LEVEL | FREE • No Credit

Search class schedule for Noncredit ESL "NC.ESL"

NONCREDIT ESL

70 & 71

ESL For College II

60 & 61

ESL For College I

Intermediate Level

Courses will help students transition to credit ESL courses by preparing for college-level reading, writing and grammar. Units: 0.00

4A & 4B

Intermediate High ESL

3A & 3B

Intermediate Low ESL

Basic Level

Courses will help develop English language listening, speaking, and reading skills. Students will practice grammar, pronunciation and vocabulary for everyday life situations. Units: 0.00

2A & 2B

Beginning High ESL

1A & 1B

Beginning Low ESL

Additional FREE ESL Courses

001

Preparing for the Workplace

002

Success in the Workplace

English for the Workplace

Search class schedule for Noncredit Vocational ESL "NC.VESL"

Courses introduce English skills necessary to enter the workplace in the United States; emphasizing vocabulary, communication skills, and cultural knowledge. Units: 0.00

020 & 021

Intermediate Conversational English

Intermediate Level

Interact fluently with others to meet every-day needs and participate in social interactions on a variety of topics in a socio-culturally appropriate way. Units: 0.00

010 & 011

Beginning Conversational English

Basic Level

Interact with others to meet basic needs related to routine everyday activities and participate in familiar social and cultural interactions. Units: 0.00

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

ADVANCED LEVEL | Enrollment Fee • Credit

Search class schedule for English as a Second Language "ESL"

CREDIT ESL

100 Advanced College Reading and Writing

Designed to prepare non-native speakers for transfer-level English composition courses with focus on writing multi-paragraph researched essays. Units: 5.00

090 Intermediate College Reading and Writing 1

Develops academic reading, writing, and vocabulary skills at the low advanced level. Focuses on essay writing and reading of fiction and non-fiction materials. Units: 5.00

Additional Credit ESL Speaking Courses

091 Accent Reduction

Focuses on accent reduction for non-native speakers of English Units: 4.00

096 College Listening & Speaking

Provides intensive practice in academic listening, note-taking, and speaking skills, including academic discussions and presentations. Units: 5.00