

In Honor of Native American Heritage Month

WHEREAS, the Associated Student Government recognizes the enduring contributions, histories, cultures, and resilience of Native American, Alaska Native, and Indigenous peoples across this land;

WHEREAS, Native students on our campus continue to face systemic barriers in higher education, and deserve intentional support, visibility, and representation;

WHEREAS, the Native American Student Support and Success Program (NASSSP) and the Native American Intertribal Alliance (NAIA) work tirelessly to uplift Native voices, foster belonging, and advocate for culturally responsive spaces;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Associated Student Government formally proclaims November as Native American Heritage Month on our campus;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that ASG pledges to:

- Support the creation and preservation of safe spaces for Native students, including cultural centers, gathering places, and community events;
- Amplify Indigenous perspectives in curriculum, programming, and campus decision-making;
- Collaborate with NASSSP and NAIA to promote visibility, equity, and success for Native students;
- Honor tribal sovereignty and Indigenous knowledge systems, and advocate for inclusive policies that reflect the diverse identities of Native peoples;
- Celebrate Native American Heritage Month through educational events, storytelling, art, and ceremony that center Indigenous voices.

Let this proclamation serve as a commitment to justice, visibility, and solidarity with Native students and communities—this month and every month.
