Motion: Kristian Mengistu, Vice President of Inter Club Council

Second: Anabelle Perez, Activity Board Team – Canyon Country

Background: The activities board will discuss April and May events

Global table will take place on April 21 at the Sustainability Center.

Collaboration with ISP and will provide food during the event.

Conversation starter will be “would you rather...”

Advertise Multicultural day during this event.

“Sip and Study” will be on the 28th which is a date change from original date.

3.2 Discussion: Multicultural Day Discussion

Motion: Amna Fadel, Vice President of Advocacy

Second: Anabelle Perez, Activity Board Team – Canyon Country

Background: The Activities board will finalize the food items we are purchasing for multicultural day and discuss more details.

April 22nd is the date of the event from 1:00 – 3:00 pm.

Attendees may spin the wheel and win a prize such as keychains, cougars and snacks.

Passports will be given with a tier system to offer different prizes:

5 stamps = goody bag and 8 stamps=goody bag and food.

Goody bags will be located at the Welcome Table.

The different foods that will be at the event are discussed.

Participants can spin the wheel to win a prize (first tier).

The goody bag will include snacks individually packaged.

Be mindful of the number of tables in the event any table cancels last minute.

For visiting all tables, there is a chance to spin the wheel again.

Food items will be:

75 sesame balls ($1.00 each)

finger food for Amna ($0.99 each) to equal about $94

85 Samosas (vegetarian) will be about $104.00

sweets up to 6 lbs. ($70.00)

Baklavas will be 100 servings

75 Lupita with meat ($55.00) options only have 4 servings.

Fried rice will be 50 servings for Panda Express.

Agua Frescas may be a drink option during the event.

Last year, the Agua Frescas was about $80.00.

Taha Saiyed, Activity Board Team – Canyon Country, arrives at 1:47 pm quorum now 6

Last year, 5 food items were served during the event.

Smaller tubs are also available for Agua Frescas.

Shirley Temples is another drink option.

Monday will be the date all food items need to be finalized.

Lynn is out next Wednesday, so it is needed before then.

Discussion of if the amount of food will be enough for the event.

Dirty Soda conversation of what it is and if it should be included in the event.

Korean drink pouches are also an option for the event.

Another food option is fried rice from Panda Express in two large trays.

Requesting the Intercultural Center to cover the cost of the Agua Frescas drinks and perhaps ice cream (Paletas) from the vendor.

Paletas will be served during the event, which is like ice cream and will request ICC to cover the cost.

Goody bags contents will also be purchased using the budget.

Contents of goody bag discussions with “Swishes” and candy and “Mochis” and “Hello Pandas”.
