Background: We will be discussing any events being hosted in September and October.

Discussion of this week's event takes place.

A good time to hold events is from 1pm until 2pm.

Reminder to complete the event evaluation form after the event.

Lily is not obligated to be at the events, and ASG members should be helping with the event more.

Future events should have more help from ASG members.

Expectations for help with events fluctuate based on the type of event.

Reminder if you have office hours during an event, please offer to help with any ASG event.

When planning events, keep in mind who is available at the time of your event.

Pre-planning event roles are helpful in planning events.

Also, keep in mind promotion of the events especially for the online student community.

An idea is to hand out future event flyers during ASG events.

Chrislynn will step in for Charlie's absence during the Land Acknowledgement.

Information for the Homecoming is discussed this Saturday.

An ASG table as well as Campus Life table will be present during the event.

Halftime event will be a blind-folded kick.

A raise of hands is done for those attending this Saturday's event.

The Voter Registration event's date is TBA.

Help is needed during the Hispanic Heritage celebration.

Inspirational Notes event will reach out to the Wellness Center for a collaboration.

Snap and Smile event at CCC from 1-2pm and will be Halloween themed. Help is much appreciated.

Charlie would like to add an event for the Interfaith Room on October 19th from 3-4pm.

A panelist for different religious backgrounds will also be invited to attend.

The duration of the interfaith survey is discussed for an end date, which would be the 1st week of October.

99 Nights- Web-based scavenger hunt is in the process and the prizes will be within the program.

Event will start at the flagpole but will take students to different departments.

Lex is starting to plan a Music Festival and would like an ASG director to take the lead on this idea and provide a date.

Music students have a requirement to perform which this event is designed to assist with.
