Agenda Item Title: Approval of NEW Club - A2MEND

Background: The A2Mend Student Charter was formed to promote a sense of brotherhood and positivity among its members within the campus and surrounding community. The mission of the A2mend charter is to foster academic success, leadership development, and personal growth of Black male students as well as other students. Its primary goals are to promote a supportive community, address the challenges faced by Black male students in higher education, and promote equity and inclusion on campus. The organization aims to provide mentorship and create opportunities for leadership, while also advocating for the academic and professional advancement through meetings, workshops, and collaboration with the broader A2Mend statewide organization.
