Motion: Our People Our Fight-Chase Longan

Second: Future Business Leaders of America-Moussa Haj Ghaban

Background: The Intercultural Center is going to go over the reservation request form to clear any confusion.

Brandon Ashford is here to review the Intercultural Center Reservation process.

The request form is located on the website but must be an employee with an email ending with "@canyons.edu".

The Email is then sent through Teams for review.

Monday is the day when the reservations are reviewed and confirmed.

Please make sure to put the correct date of the event on the request form.

Email will be sent to the email that completed the form

The request must go through Tamis for the set-up of the event.

A walk-through is recommended at least one week before the event.

When the tamis request is submitted, that will be the final table and chair request.

Minor changes may be made but the layout must not completely change.

Reservation process handouts are available at the meeting today and will be posted on the Inter Club Canvas.

Intercultural Center is a space for cultural engagement and the event should align with the same goals as the center.

Event hours/days must align with the days/hours the office is open for business.

An example of the type of event is given.

An exception can be made but should have cultural aspect attached to the type of event.

Additional tables and chairs would go through the Tamis system.

Process discussed here today is available on the website, under the Intercultural Center.

The ICC is not a part of the Honor Grove or Amphitheater.
