STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

To ensure that students have a good learning experience and to maintain a successful academic program, we expect all students to accept responsibility in adhering to the following student expectations. Failure to do so may result in loss of MESA Student Study Center privileges. Please read each item below and initial on the line next to it.

ALL STUDENTS USING THE MESA STUDENT STUDY CENTER ARE EXPECTED TO:

_____ Have a completed MESA application on file.

_____ Present a current student ID showing the MESA validation sticker when using the study center.

_____ Check in and out at the front desk when entering or leaving the study center.

_____ Be respectful of the learning needs of others by complying with the quiet study policy.

_____ Avoid use of profanity or vulgar language and shouting or talking across the room to another student or teacher. Students will be asked to leave the study center if they are being loud or disruptive.

_____ Keep cellular phones on vibrate or turned off and take all phone calls outside.

_____ Be responsible for cleaning up after yourself at all times.

_____ Follow the textbook check-out and computer printing guidelines.

_____ Be responsible for their personal property used in the study center.

_____ Keep food and drinks away from computer counters at all times.

_____ Use headphones when listening to audio presentations of any kind. Audio of any kind should not be so loud that it can be heard by others.

_____ Refrain from unplugging or moving any hardware. Report any hardware problems to MESA staff immediately. As a safety precaution, power chords should be kept free from major walkways.

_____ Refrain from any acts of theft or vandalism such as writing on tables, walls, equipment, etc. Any such behavior will result in disciplinary action and loss of study center privileges.

_____ Adhere to the COC Student Code of Conduct. Students caught cheating or doing anything unethical in violation of the COC Student Code of Conduct will lose study center privileges.
