

French AA (Associates GE Track)

+If you have completed coursework at another college and/or are starting in a semester other than a Fall term, please follow up with the Counseling Department to determine if this sequence is appropriate for your academic and career goals.

Program Description: The Department of Modern Languages offers courses in Chinese, French, German, Italian, and Spanish. Foreign-language studies provide the student with a foundation in written communication skills of the language. From a vocational standpoint, the program provides skills in translation and interpretation, business, commerce, and foreign-language based research. Foreign-language studies include numerous opportunities for students to enhance language skills and intercultural awareness through activities such as conversational groups. Cultural excursions, poetry reading, and foreign film festivals.

Program SLO: Demonstrate proficiency in communicating in expressive and receptive forms in French. Compare and contrast cultures and histories of the French speaking world.

Important Transfer Information: The sequence listed below, may not meet all your transfer admissions requirements. Connect with a counselor to develop an individual student education plan through the Counseling Department @ <https://www.canyons.edu/counseling> or (661) 362-3288/(661) 362-3811.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) may be awarded for prior experience or prior learning previously accomplished by something other than an accredited institution; for study; travel; or other experiences. Consult with the Modern Languages Department Chair for more information.

Major courses are sequenced and BOLDED based on recommendations by the Modern Languages Department.
