April Taiwan Trip

Dr. Jia-Yi Cheng-Levine was actively recruiting and partnership-building in Taiwan during the month of April 14-30th.

- Dr. Cheng-Levine visited 6 cities over the 10 business days she was there. Through these efforts, COC has established relationships with 5 of the 6 largest cities in Taiwan.
- The media coverage of this visit was even more extensive than in the past, with 42 print or tv station reports sighted just during this trip itself.
- It is estimated that between 40,000 and 50,000 individuals have heard about the College from news reports in the past two weeks alone.
- We should build further on this success and the "celebrity status" that the College now enjoys in Taiwan, which no other US institution has ever been able to garner (especially looking at our peer community colleges).
- The presence of Dean James Glapa-Grossklag, a global leader in Distance Education and OER, has enhanced the College's reputation in Taiwan as a high quality institution, particularly in online learning.
