NEW COURSE PROPOSALS – DISCUSSION OF NEED

The following new course proposals will be discussed at this meeting with the authors of the proposals to determine the need of adding the course to our curriculum. The course outlines will not be reviewed at this meeting.

Subject & Number	Title	Rationale for New Course Proposal	Author	Effective
ANTHRO-120	Queer Anthropology – Global Perspective	Cross-cultural exploration of gender and sexual identities and expressions that would be considered atypical from a Euro-American standpoint. The goal is to introduce students to the dizzying variety of ways in which gender and sexuality are and have been constructed in human societies, presently and in the very recent past, in order to help them develop an expansive understanding of human gender diversity. This course articulates with the goals and approaches of other courses in Anthropology and Sociology but fills a gap in both. Anthropology has courses that focus on cross-cultural understandings of various topics, but not one focused on gender and sexuality. Sociology has courses that focus on gender and sexuality, but not one that focuses on the issues cross-culturally.	S. Meredith	TBD

-Motion to adopt the need for and conduct a full review of ANTHRO-120; Motion by Chris Boltz, second by Holly Hitt-Zuniga. All in favor: Unanimous
