- Presenter: Dr. Daylene Meuschke, Associate Vice President, Institutional Research, Planning, and Institutional Effectiveness and CCC Initiatives
 - Equity and equality are two strategies we can use in an effort to produce fairness. Equity is giving everyone what they need to be successful. Equality is treating everyone the same. Equality aims to promote fairness, but it can only work if everyone starts from the same place and needs the same help. Equity appears unfair, but it actively moves everyone closer to success by “leveling the playing field.” But not everyone starts at the same place, and not everyone has the same needs. How is this addressed at COC and what role do YOU play?

- X. Preview of THURSDAY, June 4th Session and Homework Assignment..... 2:45 – 3:00
Facilitator: Ms. Leslie Carr, Director, Professional Development
Session Topic: Generating Resources and Networking to Get Things Done!

Homework:

- Read articles on networking and partnerships.
- Work on business plan for your Solution Team project.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this session, participants will:

- Explore the concept of “the bigger picture” and its relevance to planning;
- Discuss the on going process of planning, including the importance of data and the influence of internal and external factors;
- Engage in the development of partnerships to leverage resources that can positively effect change;
- Understand the difference between equity and equality, and evaluate their thought processes and work through an equity lens in an effort to ensure student success.
